

Prayer Call Friday, April 7, 2023 – Virginia

CLAY NASH – Well good day. It's Friday, it's 2:22 eastern time, and we're on the wall here as we cover all 50 states, and today we're praying for the state of Virginia. We've got some great guests on the call today, on this strong call. Remember that every call is recorded, and every call is transcribed. The recording goes up this afternoon; the transcription will be put up as soon as we can get it transcribed. I want to say to all, we have several people working with us transcribing these calls, thank you for taking responsibility to do that and giving sacrificially of your time – very important.

Remember, and this is important, we've got the Josiah Company Convocation coming up in Conway, Arkansas. That's right on I-40, just 30 minutes from Little Rock. There are some great hotels there that we still have some rooms left for. It will be from April the 20th through the 22nd. We've got people coming in from all over the United States. We've got great leaders that are going to be there. We've got Jacquie Tyre who is going to be there, Regina Shank, Brother Jim Hodges, Dutch Sheets, and Ken Malone. We're going to gather there for three days and pray for all 50 states during that time, so make plans to come. All the information to register is on my website, claynash.org. You can go there and join us.

Before we start on the call, let me remind you that next Monday at 2:22, we're going to begin another week, and we'll start with Connecticut on Monday at 2:22 eastern time, then we will do Vermont, Tuesday night at 9 pm eastern, then on Wednesday at 2:22 Kentucky, Thursday at 2:22 eastern time, Nevada, and we'll finish up with Wyoming at 2:22, so make plans to be on the call. I do want to say that if there is anyone on here from Vermont, or has a connection with someone from Vermont, have them write me at ClayNash@claynash.org . I would like to speak with some prayer warriors from up there, and I would appreciate hearing from them.

Regina Shank, you've got a prophetic word for Virginia. What has God given you?

REGINA SHANK – Yes, I sure do. Thank you so much. The Lord just spoke to me today about Virginia, and I'm just going to read it and decree it for us today. I heard the Lord say:

The presbytery of heaven has met on your behalf. Decisions have been made by heaven's council to remove the old guard and set up a relational round table of my sons and daughters. The knights of Pythias seats at the table are being removed; the freemasons altars will be turned upside down. The Pharisaical judges have lost their place. The money changers tables are being turned over.

I am setting up my government in Virginia. My apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers are being gathered to my throne, being recommissioned for a new season of overthrow, and resetting. Arise, my hungry ones. Arise, my warriors. I am giving you a new gavel of authority. Come before my courts for new instructions. I will not share my glory with another.

My church needs not the edifices of man; my church needs not the oracles of man; my church will not participate in the handshakes of compromise.

A new wind is blowing through your state Virginia. I will uproot the falsehoods of religious pride and establish a tree of life in the covenant root state. Your tree of knowledge has deceived you, but my Tree of Life will nourish you. Come to my garden my beloved; eat of its pleasant fruits. Sit at my table and eat even as Mephibosheth ate at King David's table, for life has crippled many, but at my table your body will come into health and arise to conquer what was sent to conquer you. Your victory is at hand as you stand firm in your fear of the Lord. Do not fear man; what can man do to you?

The lion of the tribe of Judah is among you. Worship Him. Gather my people together and let the high praises of God be in your mouth and a two-edged sword in your hand. Decree the Word and your sword will do its work. Worship is a key to unlock revival; decreeing my Word is a key to breakthrough. I am going to show up in unlikely places. Get ready; its turnaround time. You will turn at the roundabout and take a different road to victory.

So Lord, we decree these things into reality because reality is found in Christ, and Father, that Virginia will turn around because of that warring commissioning, that resetting that took place God, and that invitation to come into your garden. Father, I pray that you would bring forth that intimacy in your people in the state of Virginia, and that you, the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, would arise and that you would empower your people to praise you on a new level, and that you would empower your people to wield the word as a sword on another level, and that God, and that they will come into that place of turnaround.

Father, we thank you that your government is being set up in the state of Virginia. And the government of man is following the government of the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords that is being set up, and has been set up, will grow in the state of Virginia, in Jesus' name, amen.

CLAY NASH – Alright Regina, off to a great start! We come into agreement for those great words for the state of Virginia and over Virginia. Thank you for that.

Jacquie Tyre, I know you have a prophetic word as well, and I know that we have Rebecca Greenstreet on with us, Becky Greenstreet – let me get the name right here – a great prophetic intercessor, and I think some others. Jacquie, if you would, release your prophecy, and then I'm going to let you introduce Becky and whoever else is on today as guest.

JACQUIE TYRE – Alright Clay, thank you so much. It is such an honor to pray across these United States one at a time, and we're making it through.

Just a little background, I was in a conversation with Anne Tate this morning early about something completely different, and we began speaking about first-fruit altars. It had nothing whatsoever to do with this call, but that term stuck with me, and when I sat down and began really pressing in over Virginia, I hear the Lord say:

Land of covenant and original intent from Cape Henry to Jamestown the foundation stones of dedication, devotion, and determination to live to honor the Lord and to live to know the Lord and to advance the Gospel were solidly laid for the forming of these United States of America. The First Fruits Altar at Cape Henry established a beachhead and place of First Fruits dedication of all that would follow — all the increase, fruitfulness, prosperity, and abundance came as the blessing of the First Fruits Altar upon the shores at Cape Henry.

The First Fruits Altar for this land has been contended over, conspired against, trodden underfoot, and warred against repeatedly as if to negate its power. But I have had and still have a Holy Remnant that has remained true to My Covenant purposed proclaimed upon the shores of this land now known as Virginia.

This Land of First Fruits Saints, Patriots, Minute Men, and Warriors who fought valiantly in the founding of this Nation, and I say there are those carrying the seeds of hope rooting back to this First Fruit Altar scattered all across the land of the United States of America, and I am causing the righteous seeds of Covenant established from this first fruits altar to come alive with renewed hope, devotion, dedication, and perseverance.

It is time to repair the First Fruits Altar, to rekindle the fire that it shall never go out. Repair and strengthen the covenantal altar to the Lord and see hope arise, and shaking come to that which has set itself against My covenant. Know this and be very sure of this, My covenant is sure and it shall never fail. Rally to My altar and see every other altar crumble as you strengthen My altar of covenant over this land.

So, Father, right now in the mighty name of Jesus, I thank you for the first-fruits altar there at Cape Henry. Lord, we have referred back to that dedication of this land time and time and time again, and I believe as a company of intercessors across this nation, that for years we have been rebuilding, repairing, and strengthening that altar. And we say Lord, whatever that next assignment is to strengthen and repair that altar, so that the fire never goes out, we press in with perseverance. Father, I thank you for the promise of the seed out of that altar that are scattered all across this land, that be your Spirit, you are causing a quivering, and awakening, you are causing a passion for the freedom you have given us in this land to come forth with a vengeance of the Spirit. For the violent take it by force, according to your word, that we lay hold of your kingdom purposes in this land, and we decree that from the North, the South, the East, and the West, reinforcements are surrounding Virginia. Surrounding this place of first-fruits altar covenants there at Cape Henry. That we are rallying, even as the Nehemiah trumpet is sounded. Rallying to see this land reestablished in righteousness, justice, and truth. That the sound of worship, the sound of intercession, the sound of passion, to see your kingdom purposes established in this land, and the gospel of the kingdom to go forth, not only in this land, but from this land to the nations of the world. We say, let it be, let it be established. We stand upon your sure word and Your covenant that shall never fail, in the mighty name of Yeshua, Amen.

Alright, it is my honor and my privilege to introduce to you my friend, Becky Greenstreet, who is in Danville, Virginia at The Ignight House of Prayer, I believe it's called. Forgive me Becky if I've called it wrong. She and her husband Allen are powerful worshipping, prophetic intercessors and warriors standing for God's purposes in Virginia. We've known each other for a number of years, and I'm just honored that she was able to get on. And then Becky, I'll have you come on, and then introduce your friend that you've got coming on as well. I believe it's Donna Hayes, so after you pray, please just introduce Donna.

BECKY GREENSTREET – Thank you so much, and it's a tremendous honor for us to join with the group today. I just wanted to share a few things. I had a really busy night last night. The Lord was speaking to me, and the first thing I want to share, it really goes with everything that everyone has said, the first thing the Lord began to show me was, well, some of you know we've moved into the county, and we're trying to be farmers, so what I saw was a pig rooting up land. It was rooting up and tearing up land, and it was just going for every root that was down in that dirt until that field was completely plowed up. And I heard the Lord say:

I am going to raise up one in that state, and he will go in and begin to root out, and he will begin to find all the corruption and all the injustices that have been sown in the land. For I am going to raise him up, and he will be fearless, and they will have nothing on him. Though they will try, they will have nothing on him. For I am in a period where I am rooting up, and I am taking back to the original intent of when it first was started.

So, Father, we thank you for that, and we pray for that person. I don't know who they are, but Lord, you know who they are. We lift them up, and we just surround them Father, in the Commonwealth of Virginia. We surround them that they would complete the calling that you have placed on their life. That was another thing the Lord told me, that what this person was doing was a calling – it was not a profession. He said, "You've had too many people in professional seats." And he said, "This office is a calling, and it is taking a calling to root out and tear up the corruption that has been intertwined all within the state."

And so, the next thing that the Lord showed me, this came three times, and I can't tell you whether it was a dream or whether it was a vision, to be honest, I don't know. I fell asleep, and then I was kind of awake. Ken can probably tell me more about this; he is kind of my go-to person, but I don't know whether it was a dream or a vision. This is what it was: what happened was I began to see this woman, and she was running through a field, sort of like the field that the pig had dug up, and she had a long, white dress on, and it was very tattered. It was torn in places and extremely dirty, not so much with mud, but with black dirt.

That was kind of strange to me because where I live, we have red dirt, but it was black dirt. She was running, and her face looked like she had been through it. Her hair was all in disarray, but she had a white object, and she was running and holding that in the air while running with it. At first, I thought it was a flag, but then I thought, no. A white flag is for surrender, and we have never surrendered. The Lord said, "It is not a flag." And I said, "What is it Lord?" And the Lord said, "It is my covenant that I have made." And the Lord said, "As long as there are those, for you see the blood does cry out. There has been blood shed on that soil for my name's sake, and that blood that was shed is still carried in the DNA of people across this nation. And as long as someone is carrying that blood and holding to that covenant, the covenant still stands." And he said, "It will not go under." The Lord said He is going to be faithful, and the covenant will stand.

So, Father, we thank you for that Lord. I thank you Father, and I thank you Lord that you have mighty warriors, and that they are not turning loose of the covenant of Almighty God. And that your covenant stands, and your covenant speaks louder than any other voice that is raging across our nation and across the Commonwealth of Virginia. I thank you for that in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Now I had that dream or vision three separate times. I would go to sleep, and then I would be in some type of state, and I don't know whether it was a dream or vision, I don't know. It was the exact same one over and over and over. And I remember this because I went on a prayer summit, and the Lord reminded me of this. Some years ago I was at the Whitehouse with people who know way, way more than I do, but the Lord, in his graciousness to me, allowed me to see an angel land on the Whitehouse lawn. And that angel was ringing a liberty bell, and the word of the Lord was, "This nation will be free again." When I gave that word, I was scarred to death because I was in a room full of a lot of prophets, and I thought, "Oh my, Lord why did you tell me that? We are free." You see, I didn't know, I didn't understand then, but I understand now. But I did not understand, and I said, "Now why did you tell me that?" But the Lord was very emphatic, and he said, "This nation shall be free again!" And what I know, I don't care what it looks like, and I don't care what anybody else says, the word of the Lord stands, and we have a covenant with an almighty God that was started on the Commonwealth of Virginia on that property, and I am not, I for one, am not going to let go. And I thank you for that Father, in the name of Jesus.

As many of you know, my first ancestor was here in 1636, and some of yours probably predate mine. We have a heritage, we have a heritage, and God is faithful. God is faithful.

So, I'm going to introduce my prayer partner, Donna Hayes. I have prayed with Donna for over 30 years. We've been through good times and bad times, and she has carried me through a lot, and I've learned a lot from her. So, she's going to join and help us pray today for the Commonwealth.

DONNA HAYES – Thank you Becky. I'm just going to come in at the end here, and say, "Yes and amen." to everything that's been declared. Some of the same things the Lord's been saying to me. I've been on this track for many, many years and was on an assignment taking the standard of the word and planting it at the gates of our state on the King's Highway many years ago. And when we got to the state of Virginia, which was right beside North Carolina, the soil was totally different than North Carolina's soil. It was very rich but had roots like you would not believe. So, we had to chop, chop, chop to get the standard of God's word planted into the soil in the state of Virginia. And he brought that back to my mind, and that was many, many years ago. But anyway, the Lord was saying that we are going back to the original intent, like prophet Jacquie said and apostle Becky said, he said that we had been dealing with root issues that had been preventing God's covenant plan. Then as I was praying this morning, he gave me Jeremiah 31, starting here to declare over our state:

Behold, the days have come that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel. Not according to the covenant I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, even though I was with them as a husband, but this will be the covenant that I will make with this house, and after these days I will put my law in their inward parts...

And we thank you Lord, that you are making a new covenant with the state of Virginia.

And that's what he was saying, as this thing was turning, and the wind was blowing, he was putting his law in our inward parts in this state, and he was writing on our hearts. And he said that he will be our God, and we will be his people. And he said:

And I will teach no more any man his neighbor and every man his brother saying, "know the Lord." For they shall all know me from the least of them to the greatest of them. says the Lord, for I will forgive their iniquity. And I will remember their sin no more.

That was the part I wanted to come to, and the Lord said that this is what truly was happening, that he was laying the axe to the root of every iniquitous deed in the state, and that wind is blowing even as the new governor and the new government began move forward this last couple of years, he said that we would begin to see ourselves coming back to our original intent.

So Father, we thank you that we will be a state that is governed by the word of God, and the truth of your word. We thank you for the vision that you gave Apostle Becky last night, we thank you, Father God, that you are moving to take out who you want to take out and remove who you want to remove from the dark seeds of darkness, and you are moving to put more in these true seeds that will move under your will. And we thank you, Father God, that this is definitely a new day and a new way for the state of Virginia. And we just make that declaration today in the mighty name of Jesus, amen.

CLAY NASH – Alright, thank you Becky and Donna for coming on and releasing what God has placed in your heart. Thank you all very, very much. Ken Malone, there in Florida, what's in your heart sir?

KEN MALONE – Hey Clay, I'm so glad to be on here for this state, Virginia. I believe it's very important to the Lord. I really appreciate the two ladies who just spoke and prayed. It gives me great hope that Virginia is going to see the glory of the Lord manifest within that state. And I heard the Lord say just as this call began, he said:

Virginia, I am coming for you. I marked you as mine many centuries ago. You are mine, and darkness cannot have you. I am coming for you; my spirit is coming to you, and the root of covenant will come alive in this my state. Grace and mercy is your inheritance. Be prepared, oh Virginia, for my glory is coming to you.

And so Father, today God, I just say Lord, that grace and mercy are being released over Virginia, that the mercy of God is being poured out upon that land. And Father, I decree that the assignment of darkness is cancelled today in Yeshua's name. And I say to Virginia, "Arise and shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you." And Father I thank you God, that from the north, the south, the east, and the west, a great outpouring of your Spirit will come upon the state of Virginia, from the largest of towns to the smallest of towns; from the rural areas to the urban areas, I say that you are pouring out your Spirit, and Father I thank you today that Jamestown and Williamsburg will be celebrated as belonging to the Lord, in the name of Yeshua amen.

CLAY NASH – Alright Ken, we come in agreement with that. I agree with you. During the time that you were speaking, I just kept seeing the stem of Jesse in Virginia – the stem of Jesse, so we call it forth in this hour.

Well, we have asked a faithful person to the call from Virginia, a friend of mine, to come on the call and close us out, so Brenda, whatever is in your heart, close us out with prayer today.

BRENDA – Okay, thank you Clay.

Father, I pray for the state of Virginia this day and speak resurrection and life. I pray that Virginia will come into the fullness that God intended, and that nothing will stop the progress. I pray for our governor, Glen Youngkin and his staff, that God will lead and guide their path in truth righteousness. Isaiah 55:11 says:

So, shall my word be that goes forth out of my mouth, it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

I pray all of this in the name of Jesus, amen.

CLAY NASH – Alright, thank you Brenda for that. It's been a great call – it's been a great week. Remember that on Monday we'll pray for Connecticut, on Tuesday at 9 pm eastern time, Vermont, then on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Kentucky on Wednesday, Nevada on Thursday, and Wyoming on Friday. It's going to be a great week next week.

Let me say again, if there's anyone on the call from the state of Vermont, write me at ClayNash@claynash.org. I would like to speak to you about the Vermont prayer call, And also, if you're on here, and you don't have anything to do tonight at 7:30 central time, if you will go to my website or my U-tube channel, Dr. Duanne Miller and I are going to be doing a Passover Seder, and you can join with us livestream from right there in your home tonight at 7:30 eastern time.

I want to thank our hosts and our guests today. Thank you, Becky, for bringing Donna on. Thank you for making time for this call, and everyone who participates by listening, adding their power of agreement, and making their declarations and decrees, thank you from the depths of our hearts.

We're moving forward, we've now done 35 states, we have 15 more. We're going to finish on April the 28th, and we're going to be able to look back. We're actively talking with a publisher about taking the prophetic words, the declarations, and decrees and turning it into a resource that can be used in the future.

God bless you! Have a great resurrection weekend, and celebrate the goodness of God.
