Chuck: I say to America, I am causing My wing to reshadow[1] you. I am putting My wing over you[2]. Therefore, do not fear the darkness of the next four[3] months[4], for know My wing is creating a shadow that you will need in days ahead.

I say to you, the next four months, I will teach My people to see in ways they have not seen before, for they will be walking under a shadow[5]. But in that shadow will be an anointing that has not been released to My remnant in many years.

I say to you, know I am shadowing this land, and from the shadow I am placing on America, I will begin to move throughout the lands that have aligned (with her).

I say to Morocco, because you aligned first and became the first alliance of America, I will favor you in a new way. And I say the remnant that has long gone away will rise again there.

I say to the nations this hour, I am shadowing America. It will be dark for four months, but know this, in that dark there is a light that is beginning to get brighter and brighter, and when My wing lifts, America will arise again in a new way.

(Chuck, from what Ammon was praying in tongues)
This is going to be like a comma in a sentence, a selah pause, but in the midst of you under My shadow, I am causing your shadow to be able to shine in a new way[6].

Lisa: (Referencing The Battle Hymn of the Republic) There are hymns I am giving in this time. There are songs of praise to praise Me with that will see you through if you will ask Me for the sound. Ask Me for the songs, ask Me for the hymns, I am faithful to give them, and you will see My shadow. You will see My victory. The song will come that will roll back all the sounds of the enemy that is covering. It will expose what needs to be exposed, and it will bring you to a place of victory in Yeshua's name.

Anne: The Lord says, At this time I am restoring the inheritance that this nation started out with, the inheritance I had for them, one piece at a time. When the Battle Hymn of the Republic was sung that last time, in that last season of the Civil War, only it was sung in the North. This time it is being sung by all of us with great joy and expectation, for every piece of our history and our inheritance is being restored to us in this dark time. We will rejoice and be glad in it.

Tongues interpreted by Keith Pierce:
Today is a day that I am bringing you to the warfront[7]. The front row has stood in familiarity and I am removing them and promoting the next row up. And, the next row that comes up will stand, but they will not awaken to My call. Yet, the 3rd row, I have rested My hand of favor; I have rested My hand of shield. I have covered them, I have anointed them, I am indwelling them, I am empowering them. And, when they step forth, the enemy will drop the spoils of the land. And run and run and run and accelerate in the field. I am taking My place as the Captain of the Army. Watch My promotion occur. The ranks are changing in Jesus' name.

[1] Re-shadowing means to cast a second shadow, re-darken an area, or re-apply shading in art or digital design. It is also occasionally used in literary analysis to describe repeating or returning to an ominous hint or structural warning previously introduced in a story. [1, 2, 3, 4, 5]
[2] ' HE WHO dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall remain stable and fixed under the shadow of the Almighty [Whose power no foe can withstand].' Psalm 91:1AMPC
[3] Four, prophetically: and the physical earth. It signifies God's order and the establishment of His universal reign. [1, 2, 3, 4]
[4] July 5, 2026 four months = November 5, 2026, 2 days after Mid-Term Elections
[5] Looking out from under a shadow involves the physical science of indirect lighting. Even though shadows block direct light, the area is still illuminated by ambient light scattering and bouncing off surrounding surfaces like walls and buildings. Because this reflected light bounces at least twice, it is much dimmer than direct light, allowing our eyes to adjust and see clearly. [1]
[6] "From shadow to shine" (or "stepping out of the shadow into the shine") describes a transition from obscurity, self-doubt, or being overshadowed by others, into a state of prominence, success, and confidence. It signifies personal growth, realizing one's full potential, or finally being recognized for one's own talents
[7] A war front (or battlefront) is the extreme forward area of a combat zone where opposing armed forces are in direct contact and active fighting takes place. Metaphorically, it refers to the forefront of any intense, ongoing struggle, such as a political or social campaign

Chuck:
I am rearranging My people. I am causing My gifts to be positioned in new ways. And this this rearrangement, you will shout This is My day For in My day, the day of the Lord, you will walk in victory. And, I say the fourth column I will know the world and will be more wise than the world. But the fifth column will know My abundant grace. So, be rearranged, be repositioned this day, for this is a day of My leading you forth in a new way.

Keevy:
And the Lord would say to you that you have been looking for another person to be the light where God has called you to stand and be the light. And the Lord says you are afraid to stand in darkness, but the Lord says it is not dark because you are there. I say, it is time for you to put on your boots for war because the light needs to shine. I say in the sixth and seventh column the light will begin to get brighter and brighter. And by the time you get to the twelfth column, a new administration will be formed for My war unit, says the Lord. I say, stand where I call you to stand. And the Lord says, 'Quit trying to be afraid of the dark for you are the light of the world, you are My light. God and stand where it is dark, for I need light carriers in this hour, says the Lord.

Keith:
Now listen and listen and listen again, to the beat of the drum, because I am changing the rhythm, I am changing th beat, I am even be adjusting the modulation. Listen and listen carefully, because I am changing the beat of the drum. Let your feet lead with the new sound, that you can march in the direction that I am taking you in Jesus' name.

Chuck: And the Lord says, Not only am I changing the beat and the tempo, but I am changing your shoes. Last season's war boots are not what you need to wear for this season. So I say, these four month are going to be four months of you breaking in your new war mantle. And, new war shoes. I say to you by the end of the four months, you will have peace on your feet again, and go in, sayeth the Lord.

(Drums playing and pressing)

Chuck: For this is the sound of how I will accelerate your change, sayeth the Lord. (Drums) Sound the sound sayeth the Lord

LeeAnn singing: If what the enemy has built is still standing, hit it again until it falls down.
Hit it until it all falls down Hit it again until it all falls down.
He had to kill the old sound to raise up the new ways. Today is new day for a new sound raising up. Raise it up.

(Not sure who this was) Mega grace unleashed in our nation. "My priest, wearing holiness to the Lord - Calling to mega-holiness in this hour. A radical, violent, take it by force grace that the Lord has unleashed this morning. Things in your life are about to SHIFT… Shift into My glory, My favor, My prosperity.
