Regina Shank – Job 14:7 “There is hope for a tree when it is cut down, that it will sprout again and its shoots will not fail. Though its roots grow old in the ground and its stump dies in the dry soil, at the scent of water it will flourish and produce sprigs like a plant.”

Clay Nash – As Regina was speaking, I heard the Lord say, “I’m releasing a moisture to the United States of America, but it will not be a moisture that will fall from the sky, it will be a moisture that will rise out of the earth supernaturally. And the stumps that have been cut off by the liberals, that many have said were dead and would never bear forth fruit again – watch for the green sprouts,” says the Lord. “Watch for that which will rise out of a dead stump. Watch for my grace that will cut those who have been cut down by idle promises. For the liberal, socialist, democrat party has dangled a carrot for years out in front of impoverished people. But I am releasing a moisture that will begin to rise up out of the earth. And its going to cause that which looks dead to come alive, and that which looks like it can bear no fruit to bear fruit, and that which looks like it will bear no fruit that will remain – I am the God of remaining, I am the God of eternity. I am releasing this moisture to bring forth fruit that will remain and I am doing so now. Don’t look for it in the future. See it with your eyes of faith now. Move with that which you see. Watch and see what I am doing,” says the Lord.
