

Triumphant Prayer Call for Righteousness: Tuesday Night Call

Date: 2021-11-02

Topic: Praying for Elections

Jacquie Tyre [00:00:01] Good evening, everyone. We are glad you are on with us. This is Jacquie Tyre. I'm filling in for Clay Nash again. He will be back with us soon. He's out hunting buck deer or whatever they call them, out in New Mexico, and we're glad he's having this time away with his son and being refreshed and I know God's speaking to him as he's there. Our focus tonight is to pray over the Virginia elections and the other elections across our nation and to stand watch to secure the vote across our land to secure the integrity of the voting process in our nation. And we are just very grateful for all of you being on day after day and adding the power of agreement with us. Thank you for the notes and emails that we all get. You really encourage us, and I just want to thank you so much for doing that day after day. Regina Shank, I'm going to call on you to open us in prayer. Share what's on your heart and then leave out in intercession for our nation.

Regina Shank [00:01:17] Okay. Thank you, Jacquie. So good to be on with everybody tonight. Father, we just thank you for your Holy Spirit who guides our intercession. Father, I thank you that you are praying through us tonight for a nation whose purpose has been weighed in the balances. But Lord, I thank you that that is changing and this shift has come and America shall be saved. And these elections shall be in your hands. Lord, not in the hands of those who are devious. So we ask you to guide our intercession tonight, father, so that we can continue to bring breakthrough to a nation, in Jesus name. Amen. Well, you know, I was praying about tonight and actually a scripture came to me that has the word election in it, and it doesn't refer to the election we're talking about. But it really jumped out. And I have some definition here. I think it might help us. It's out of second, Peter one, starting with 10, it says: therefore, my brothers be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. And I started thinking about, I know that's about us and our calling. But as I was praying about that I felt like our Election needs to be sure As well. And you know, a calling is a profession, and there are some who were called to run for office and to stand in a position representing the people in the United States of America. There are some who are not. And they are there because they want it rather than they have a calling to it. And then when you look at the word election, it's an organized choice. And it's not to be done to defraud people. It's supposed to be true and real and sure. And what it says in Second Peter 1 about the calling and election sure, I start thinking about how our elections had been fraudulent instead of sure. And sure means having no doubt the rightness of an event. And so we want our elections to be sure, having no doubt that what has happened really was the true result. And then when you look at the word fraud, it's wrongful deception intended to result in personal or financial gain. And I just looked up a few minutes ago, Youngkin who is running for governor in Virginia, and it looked like he had 55 percent of the vote and McAuliffe, had 44 percent. Some are calling it already and others are not. But we want to pray into that and let God's choice come forth. He's the one who calls people to those offices and so We want the calling of God in Virginia. And we also want the decisions in the Supreme Court to be orchestrated by the spirit of God. And so Lord, I decree into our elections, father, that they would be sure. We would have no doubt about the rightness in the vote and that there would be no fraud or criminal activity to result in personal gain. So, father, we're calling upon your name tonight and thanking you, father, for watching over your word and your choice God to bring it forth in this nation. And so, father, as we pray over every election and over the Supreme Court justices, father, we thank you, Lord, that your plum line is being dropped from heaven over the Virginia election and over the decisions of the Supreme Court. Lord, we thank you that the plum line is righteousness and so righteousness has no fraud in it. Righteousness has no deviousness in it. Righteousness comes from your throne because righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne. And when you rule and you reign God, your throne is in place. Righteousness can go forth and so can justice. And so we pray for that in our nation. And we thank you, father, that you are bringing things into the light that have been hidden in darkness. And Lord, we just say over our elections, let there be light. Over the one in Virginia, over the previous ones. And let there be light that comes to every Supreme Court justice in America. Lord Light contains revelation when it comes from you. God, I pray that they would see what they've not seen before revealed by your spirit. Lord, I also pray that these justices would not cower to the opinions of others, that they would not walk in the fear of man, but they would walk in the fear of God. And Lord, we thank you that the fear of the Lord is a refuge for our children and our children's children. And Lord, we're praying not only for our personal children and children's children, but the children's children of this nation. Lord, the future is weighing in the balance here, and Lord, we thank you that this shift is coming because we have prayed. We have decreed and the angels are carrying out those decrees from the Supreme Court of Heaven over this nation, in Jesus name.

Jacque Tyre [00:07:13] Amen. A thank you, Regina. We really appreciate that. David Hertel, you're on. And I'm sure you've got some passion built up in your bones tonight.

David Hertel [00:07:27] Well, I haven't gotten past the prayer call and I've got the same thing burning in my spirit. I'm just going to pray the word, the prophetic word that I heard recently on October 29. And I just thank you, Lord, we just declare and agree with heaven and heaven's agenda, and initiative that you're pouring out of unprecedented measure of your spirit on Virginia. You're raining the rain of your glory on Virginia. Families will feel it. Churches will feel it. the legislative and governmental bodies of Virginia will feel it, and they will change. There will be Saul's converted Paul's. So many so that it will become an unusual new norm. I thank you, Lord, for the impossible things becoming even likely and predictable. That they will be converted into righteousness and Lord faith will be rewarded as never before. And we thank you, Lord, that the enemy has gotten away with some prognostications and previews, but they're false and they're being destroyed by your power and your truth. And we thank you that your show is about to start and we're ready for your show, Lord. We've had enough of the devil. We've had enough of the evil and the ideologies of Satan. We're ready for the show that you're about to start Lord. And so we come in agreement with it here and declare it forth Lord in agreement with heaven. And we say, according to Isaiah 61 through three, we will be arising and shining and your light has already come through Christ and your glory has risen on us. And so the darkness that sought to cover the earth and a deep darkness has sought to cover the people. But the Lord, you are rising over, your Ekklesia and your glory is being seen like never before. And it's infusing and infiltrating and penetrating into dark areas that they thought would never be subject to God. And so, Lord, we thank you that gentiles are coming to your light and kings to the brightness of your rising and Saul's being converted to Paul's, Lord, across the world. And Lord unheard of and unheralded, tamped down and ignored and discredited by ungodly media. But it's happening, Lord. So we thank you Lord it's according to Amos 9:13 Behold, the days have come upon us when the Plowman is overtaking the Reaper and the clatter of grapes is overtaking him who sows seed and the mountains are dripping with sweet wine and the hills flowing with it. And so we declare that the supernatural natural reciprocity is being released in Virginia tonight. We thank you that it's being released in other elections across America this day, and we thank you, Lord, that the plowman angel is at work plowing in Virginia today and tonight, and with the reaper angel is gathering in a righteous harvest of votes and the treader angel is treading out the hindrances and obstructions and bringing forth sweet wine of your purposes and plans. And the sower angel is planting even more and a greater righteous harvest to come. Lord, we thank you for that, and we thank you that an overflow harvest of righteous voting in Virginia today will bring forth your purpose and your plan and your will and your man to rise up and to honor the Constitution of the United States and your word and your principles and your plans. And the voting will be substantial and it will be enough that it cannot be negated, defrauded or disregarded and America will be saved. And it will fulfill its destiny of exporting the gospel of the kingdom to every land and every people. Lord, let it even be a milestone, a watershed. Whatever word we can put on it, let it begin in Virginia tonight, the clarion call that cannot be denied that you are shifting things in a major way into alignment with your plans and your purposes, in Jesus, name Lord, we declare it and decree it tonight and agree for it, and we will see it with our eyes even tonight, in Jesus name. Amen.

Jacque Tyre [00:12:00] Amen, thank you, David. Strong, as always. we really appreciate that. Tim Cascadden, you're on with us tonight. And I know you have your finger on the pulse of a lot of things that are going on in Virginia and in our nation. And I'd just like you to give all of us updates and some of your perspective from your position of not only being a kingdom leader within the church, but one who acts as a lobbyist and involved in government and politics. I think that is something that's real important for us to hear and comprehend so that we come in to another level of understanding because with greater understanding, we pray with greater authority. And so I would just like to hear your heart and some information. So just take your liberty and then release the prayers that God has on your heart.

Tim Carscadden [00:13:00] Thank you, Jacque and thanks everybody, that's praying tonight, we stay on the wall. This is not over til it's over, as we say. And Virginia is a very critical state. We said today at the afternoon prayer that it is a first fruit state. First president came from there. It has been a key battleground for many, many years. Our first, you know, people that came to Jamestown were there. So it's such an important state for us all to stay on the wall for, you know, we really don't know what's going to happen. Northern Virginia is where the main blue area is, and they historically do not turn in their votes until the very end. So we'll have to wait till later, if we even get to see this tonight. Because if you know, Clinton's lawyer is there challenging the mail in ballots already or he has lawsuits in about that saying the Postal Service has been slow and therefore not allowing the votes to be counted. And although the Postal Service came out and said that's not true, that they had got them out in time, so there's been a good response to that. Also, Fairfax County, I think everybody may have seen they stopped the counting and the reason was there was a problem with a memory card and actually their GOP lawyers were in the room the whole time and witnessed it, and they agreed that it did need to be recounted. So that's good news on that end. So make sure we follow the whole story through on that. So going to be a long night, you know, but we still want to push through. We want to make sure that there's no deception there whatsoever. And I think our humility before the Lord right now, I was reminded, you know, we prayed this last year, but in first Kings 1 about Adonijah. and you know how he planted himself and made himself king. But the key was Nathan and Bathsheba went into the king, which is the prophetic and the bride. You know, the ecclesia went into the king with humility and just laid before the king, you know, because they knew the Lord had declared righteousness and justice would reign through Solomon. And when you see this injustice coming, the response for all of us is to be angry. But the better response is to go and what she and he did. They went into the king and lay prostrate before the king and the king said to them both, What do you wish? In other words, what's on your heart? And I think as we approach the father tonight, especially for possible injustices that's going on across the land. Let's go in with that humility and say, God, you know, did you not say? And that's really what they did. They went in and said, David, did you not say that you're son Solomon would be the king? you know, and we would go in and say, Did you not say Lord? That justice will reign in America? Did you not say that all of America will be saved? You know, we go in that way, and with that, we can get a proper response from the Lord, which is what do you wish? We get the share our petitions before the Lord. And David declares that in Psalms about how God hears all our petitions and tonight we're petitioning for this Virginia vote, and again, there's other votes down ballot here that's very, very important. Secretary of State, Lieutenant Governor, 100 assembly seats. In 2019, the Republicans went from a veto proof assembly to losing it, so that's how fast it turned. So what we believe here is it could flip back. And then not only will it be a governor, but it'll also be an assembly that will be a voice for what is right. And Jacquie brought it out this afternoon. I think it's so, so important. This is about family. This is about our children. It's a referendum on our children and on our righteous parents in the nation. So it's much more than a governor's election. It speaks of the heart of America and the heart of Judeo-Christian values. And so we do want to stay on the wall. I mean, there are a lot of predictions that you know, that he is going to win and I'm not going to say that until the end. I think right now 79 percent of the vote is in and he does have a 54 percent lead. But let's just believe that there be no corruption, you know, win or lose, All we ask is for a fair election. That's really all we ask for and working with some of our congressmen, we talked about that recently about, you know, their hope for 2022. And yet they're bottom-- I mean, their underlying issue is to make sure voter integrity is there. And so if you met the right candidate, It doesn't matter if you don't have voter integrity. so I think it's the greater issue. So, I think America should be heard and will be heard if that is guaranteed. And right now, Virginia is a test case and with all eyes on it, it's a lot easier to get away with it on a national scale. It's much more difficult to get away with it on a state scale because the whole world or the whole country is looking at Virginia. So you got a lot of eyes on it. Whereas last year you had all these states and you couldn't have enough eyes because there were so many discrepancies.

And so here tonight, all eyes are on Virginia especially. And so we want to make sure that the eyes of the Lord with our eyes are upon him. And so we want to make sure that we say that all the eyes of Israel says in First Kings¹, will look at him and look at the king and say, You know, who's going to be on the throne? And so we want to see all our eyes and Lord, we want to say, you're on the throne in America. And so we want to decree that. Also remember, and I'm going to decree some stuff and pray here, but also Minnesota, I think the polls are still open there. They're voting to just disband the police department, which is a huge, huge issue in Minneapolis. And I haven't seen any results yet on that. But, in Austin also, there was a vote for a positive vote. Tom may know more about that, about having so many police officers per citizens. I think one per thousand citizens, I think, is what the vote was. So we're going to see some righteousness for our first responders as well. So let's pray for Virginia, please, everybody just jump on here in your heart and just agree. if you'll pray in the spirit And let's just agree that God's will would be done, but also that righteousness would prevail there. And so, father, we lit up Virginia again right now. We know that Father the polls are closed, but we also know that now it's in the hands of politicians. It's in the hands of people that have the potential to corrupt or potential to do what's right, and we declare righteousness will prevail. We decree tonight that truth will prevail. We ask you, lord we come before you like Nathan and Bethsheeba did, and we lay before you and we say, Lord, did you not say that justice is your love and you love justice with all your heart? Or did you not say that Lord you love when a nation has righteousness and that Lord that your heart is lifted up when righteousness rules in a nation? And so, father, we come before you in humility and we say, Lord, have your way. Now, Lord, we ask you to move on behalf of your hand and upon your purpose in this state and for our nation, for our families, for our children, for our parents, Lord for all that are on trial tonight. Lord, in this one state and may father, it start a whole tsunami of your spirit moving across the land. And father, let it go from Virginia to other states to other states to find the Lord that your name is honored in our nation again. And Lord, you can bring a correction to things that have been unjust in our land. And so, father, I pray for everybody on this call tonight thats in agreement. Strengthen them, give them wisdom and vision to see in the spirit to pray accordingly in the name of Yeshua. Amen. Amen. thank you, Jacquie, Jacquie Tyre [00:21:26] Amen. Thank you, Tim. I really, really appreciate all of your comments, but especially your comments out of First Kings and coming before the Lord in humility. It's very easy when we see so much going on to get angry, to get frustrated. And I think we can pour out our complaints before the Lord. But when we come into the place of interceding for our nation and these different issues, it's very important that we keep ourselves clothed in humility and check our hearts to be sure we're not operating out of any measure of an unrighteous anger or vindication, because the Lord will vindicate. And I believe we have to trust that he is at work and just a word of encouragement for everybody. Keep yourself pure so that you can really hear what the spirit of the Lord is saying. I know I have to guard my own heart in this because there are times I read reports and just want to scream. but just keep that admonition at the front door of your heart. Sir, thank you, Tim. Let's see, Brother Jim, you are on next. What have you got on your heart today, sir? We're glad you're on with us tonight.

Jim Hodges [00:22:47] Thank you very much, Jacquie. We've been stirred like most of you, especially in this season, were in to believe that a shifting and a turning is happening, and tonight that's what I'm hearing on the call. I'm loving Regina talk about basically shifting us from unsure elections to sure elections. that was excellent. {inaudible} people of God. But you got to let the elect, if you will, do what it does and the Ekklesia do what it does, if you will. Pardon the pronoun there, it's not personal, but you get my point. So there's a shifting and turning, thank God, because how many of us have been concerned, OK? The polls may show, but how much fraud will these elections experience? And so that was awesome turning. And then when David prayed It was "OK, We're shifting and turning from the devil's show to the Lord's show. let the Lord's show begin. Hooray! And then Tim comes on and gives us analysis better than Bill Hemmer on Fox. I'm telling you Tim, that was Awesome. I've learned more from you. Maybe a fox ought to give you a contract. I don't know. But that really stirred me because it is about the values. Because on a national scale where they can cover up fraud more. And then they just throw out all this policy stuff. and here we're down to values. Like the family, like parental rights. And as Tim said, the Judeo Christian view. Virginia being first. I thought about Pat Robertson, thought about Liberty, thought about those other schools in Virginia. So evidently, Christians got stirred, came out to the polls. We know everything's not final. But I'm declairing with you and believing that this shift is really kicking into gear right now. That's going to have awesome results moving forward. I'm not panicky. I'm not totally impatient. However, I have a testimony on another issue, which also documents turning. And then I'll and just pray briefly. Recently, in our conference, we were able to document to a man's name I can't share, but it's public knowledge, so it's not classified. If you haven't heard, it's good news for the Ekklesia. A man named---I can't remember his first name. His last name is something like Maghera from Canada. He is the Canadian Jeffrey Epstein. And they found footage of him loading young children on the 727 that bore the label of his name getting ready to go to the air course, traveling with these children opening up to a flying brothel as it were. But number one, they got him extradited from Canada, and he has a 100 year sentence. So all this evil being exposed, we need more of it adjudicated. So father, we thank you right now that things are turning. Hallelujah. We call on you as a father of Lights with whom there is no variation or turning on nor shadow of turning. Thank you Lord, there's no dark side to you. We just say your light is shining and the light is shining through the Ekklesia. It's our turn to shine so brightly that the opposition is blinded. Lord, you blinded Saul of Tarsus when he was an opponent away to Damascus to arrest your followers. You blinded him for a season that was Saul of Tarsus. then, paul, of Antioch in Acts 13, went forth and blinded that false prophet magician, Elymas, and said, You're blinded for a season. Lord, we say as the turning occurs that the light of your glory and presence and power increase upon the Ekklesia to keep on moving forward in the light that no power of darkness can quench; the light of the Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Lord. Turn us. Turn us. As the Prophet Jeremiah prayed in Lamentations, and we will be turned. {inaudible} and we will be restored. Amen.

Jacquie Tyre [00:27:43] Thank you, brother Jim. I love the way you summarize and bring everything all together. It's a beautiful thing. Thank you so very much. Sharon Buss, you're on with us. What's God got on your heart today?

Sharon Buss [00:27:56] Well, I've just been meditating over and over again about the word, I think it was Dan that brought it the last couple of days on the afternoon call about...{sound out}. And I've just been praying into that in tongues and asking God to sovereignly send angelic help to undo the fraud that is in these machines. And I was also praying earlier with our with our prayer team about shaming the sham, that the sham and the fraud and all of these things be exposed and shamed and the people that are involved be exposed and shamed. And if if they even have a shred of integrity left, if they have a conscience left that they will stand up and even declare the wrong things that they've done and blow the whistle on others and just expose this whole thing because it's it's time for the light. I was also reminded this afternoon of the word that came from Jane Hamon's Dream February 2nd, where the Angel of the Lord was was shouting out through the megaphone and the Ekklesia was was lined up shoulder to shoulder shields locked as riot police to deal with the stuff that's going on. I mean, really, this is a riot in the spirit realm. This is a riot in the spirit realm. All of this sham and all of this fraud and all of this evil, all of this, you know, the propaganda machine, it's all a sham. And so as the Angel of the Lord would shout into the megaphone, the hold the line, the Ekklesia would move forward two stomping steps. And it sounded like thunder because it wasn't only the Ekklesia that was marching forward, it was also the angelic armies of the Lord. And so these are things that are in my spirit. And I want to read and pray into Isaiah, 41, starting with verse 9. And obviously, I want to make it very clear my stand that this is a word to Israel. But of course, we've been grafted into Israel. So the Ekklesia is a part of of Israel, is a part of the promises of the Lord to Israel and to Jacob and so on. So, as I read this, it is for Israel and we need to pray for Israel too. They are in a terrible situation right now where there's a vote coming up very shortly in the Knesset that basically is going to make Israel a dictatorship. And it's very ugly. So as I pray, it will pray also for Israel, as we're declaring this. Starting with verse 9: you whom I, the Lord have taken from the ends of the Earth", and that is Israel, and that is America, we're composed of people from the ends of the Earth, "and have called from the corners of it and said to you, You are my servant. I have chosen you and not cast you off. Even though you are exiled." I'm reading from the amplified. "Fear Not there is nothing to fear for. I am with you. Do not look around you in terror and be dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties. Yes." And I've also been studying how drop forging increases the strength of steel. It comes under these tremendous blows of pressure and it increases the strength of steel. And that's where we are. Every blow is meant by the devil for evil. But it's meant by God to strengthen us and unite us. "Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will hold you up and retain you with my victorious right hand of righteousness and justice. Behold, all they who are enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded." We're declaring shame on the sham, including in these elections. "They who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish. You shall seek those who contend with you and shall not find them. They who war against you shall be as nothing as nothing at all. For I, the Lord, your God hold your right hand. I who say to you, Fear not, I will help you. fear not, you worm Jacob", and America. You know, right now there's enough wormy kind of stuff going on that it's OK for God to call us a worm. "You, men of Israel, I will help you, says the Lord. Your redeemer is the holy one of Israel. Behold, I will make you now to be a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth. You shall thrash the mountains." And I declare that over all the mountains of influence. All you shall thrash all the mountains of influence. All the media, the government, the military, the entertainment, the family, the education, all of those mountains of influence and religion in particular. "You shall thrash these mountains and beat them small and shall make the hills as chaff. It's time for all of that stuff that's arisen in pride to be brought down. Pride and fraud. To be brought down and brought under the influence of the Kingdom of God and the word of God from the heart, not just lip service. You shall winnow them and the wind (That's the Holy Spirit) shall carry them away, and the tempest or whirlwind shall scatter them. (And I see the pillar of cloud and the pillar of fire that the Lord was to Israel in the wilderness.) And you shall rejoice in the Lord. You shall glory in the holy one of Israel. So Father, We just thank you for your word, and we thank you that you are at work in America doing the things that you have dreamed. You are undoing fraud. You are undoing things that have been put into place fraudulently. This is like a house of cards, that's in the process of falling. And we thank you, father, that your wind is going to blow. Your mighty Holy Spirit, blow across this nation, blow across Israel, blow across the nations of the world. Father, Pour out your spirit on all flesh and bring things in to righteousness that comes from having an experience with you, father, even those places that maybe are still open for the poll. Father, we ask you in the name of Jesus Christ that you will speak to voters to vote righteously in the name of Jesus Christ, to whisper into people's ears and cause them to vote the right way and cause those voting machines and those ballots to be done righteously in the name of Jesus Christ. That every hack that's been put into place will be unhacked by the powers of your holy people or your holy angels, whoever it takes, whatever it takes, Lord. We're asking you for a righteousness in these elections, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. And father, We ask that you would just pour your spirit out on Virginia and cause the chaos that is in the works to try and muddy the waters and muddle things up. Father, we're asking for you to bring righteousness out of this in the name of the love of Christ, because this is your nation and we are expecting your purposes to be accomplished and that we will be everything that you've called us to be; evangelists to the nations of the world in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Jacque Tyre [00:36:31] Amen. Thank you, Sharon. When Sharon spoke, she said the idol-- she would use the word riot, and I immediately heard the phrase idols are rioting, and there was a book out called Idols Riot by Katie Souza and Dr. Francis Myles That is excellent. But I just began pondering as Sharon was continuing and praying how what we're seeing in Virginia and other places all the way across this nation is as the presence and the glory of God is coming and there is the weight of his glory. We're seeing the idols really riot. They're rising up. They're protesting, they're kicking, they're screaming. And they really are rioting in order to keep their place of position, of authority and to suppress that which God wants to do. And I remember a number of folks who over the years have had a word. I believe Don Lynch had this word a couple of years ago or so that we were going to see the rise of revival and riot at the same time. And I believe that's what we're seeing in the nation today. We're seeing incredible moments and encounters where the spirit of God is moving and people are getting saved and the church is waking up and part of what is waking the people of God up, because we'd had it very easy in many, many ways, but the challenges and the troubles and all of the stuff going on in our nation is causing people to wake up and to see, "Oh, wait a minute, I need to pay attention in a different way." I read one post today that was talking about how the approval rating, in fact,

I posted it on our site for our hosts And the people-- this is from Meet the Press and they did a NBC News poll and the people saying the country is headed in the right direction is Only 22 percent. On a wrong track: 71 percent. President Biden's job performance approval: 42 percent. Disapproval: 54 percent Now, I don't rejoice ever having to see numbers like that, but it is an evidence that people are waking up. There's a lot of remorse thinking the nation was going to go a certain way and it's going somewhere else. So we're seeing the awakening happen. And at the same time, we're seeing the screaming of the riots, of the idols rioting. And just briefly, and I'm going to close this out in prayer. someone that's on the calls virtually every day since this passage to me earlier, and I'm going to read out of Isaiah 43, a different translation that I normally read out of but it really resonated out of the good news translation. Isaiah 43, beginning in verse 8, God says, Summon my people to court. They have eyes, but they are blind. They have ears, but they are deaf. Summon the nations to come to the trial, which of their gods can predict the future? which of them foretold what is happening now? Let these gods bring in their witnesses to prove that they are right. To testify to the truth of their words. People of Israel, people of God, you are my witnesses. I choose you. I chose you to be my servant so that you would know me and believe in me and understand that I am the only God. Besides me there is no other God. There never was and never will be. I alone am the Lord, the only one who can save you. I predict what would happen. And when I came to your aid, no foreign God has ever done this. You are my witnesses. I am God and always will be. No one can escape from my power. No one can change what I do. So, father, I thank you that you are our God and there is no other one like you. I thank you that you are the God that knows the beginning from the end. You know what is going on. There is nothing that is hidden from your sight. Your eye searched to and fro throughout all the Earth to see those whose hearts are steadfast toward you and you judge in matters of righteousness and you are raising up a people who, after the order of the sons of Zadok, who minister first to you and then minister to the people to teach in the way that they should go, according to your word. And I thank you, father, that you, as the God who knows the beginning from the end, the one who prophesies, are raising up Samuels in this land that their words would not fall to the ground and lord that we are standing our watch in this hour and we look with great anticipation of what you are doing. We thank you, father, that none of the shakings, none of the troubles that we are going through in this nation shall be for naught. But they are working a greater work of righteousness in your people. You're causing, all of this is causing people who were slumbering to wake up. Those who were blinded to be able to see. I plead the blood of Jesus over your people all across this nation to have the blood of Jesus awaken their eyes, open their ears, quicken their spirit man that they may stand up and decree what is right. Decree your word, Lord, that you would fill your people with an infusion of supernatural encouragement, faith, hope and trust. And Lord, we do decree over this nation that this tsunami wave of turning is upon us. And Lord, we pray over Virginia. We pray secure that state As a first fruit state. We stand in agreement God that what you are desiring to do, what you have purposed to do, that the people of Virginia are standing strong and lord that there will be eyes to see everything that is going on, that no evil, no underhanded coercion, no manipulation, no illegal operation of the voting system, the reporting and anything else related to this election will be allowed to stand. as Tim said, God, all the eyes of the nation are upon this election and we stand father in faith, saying let every hidden work of darkness be exposed and let truth prevail From pole to pole, county to county throughout this state and let righteousness rule, and I pray the same thing father over New Jersey that is in a neck to neck campaign fight with the Democrat and Republican governor's race. Father, we decree, let that also come into an alignment. Let there be a one two punch of first fruits, a double portion, first fruits in this nation that will release a faith surge for us as we go into this new year. And father, I thank you that you are strengthening us all in our innermost being to stand and having done all to stand. And we thank you, father, that you are doing exceedingly, abundantly above all that we could ask, think or imagine. Let your kingdom come. Your will be done on Earth, even as it is in heaven. In Yeshua's mighty name. I just want to say amen, and amen to everything that has been prayed tonight, that has been shared. I thank you all for being on with us, and we will be back with you tomorrow at 2:22. This recording will be put up within the next day, if not even tonight, and then the transcription will be up in a couple of days. So be sure to keep praying as you watch the returns come in. As you hear the reports on the news. Don't be swayed by what you hear in the natural. Stay firm. Stay true to what the spirit of the Lord is saying and what we know he's telling us to pray. So I bless you all. Thank you hosts for being on tonight, and I look forward to being back with you again tomorrow. Goodnight, everyone.
