

Triumphant Prayer Call for Righteousness

Tuesday Night Prayer Call

Date: 2021-08-17

Topic: Fulton Street Well (Greg Hood's Dream)

Clay Nash [00:00:07] Well, greetings. It's 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time and we're on the Tuesday night call. Greg Hood recently had a very, very significant dream and Dutch broke it down into several parts on GiveHim15. Tonight we're going to look at the first one, the Fulton Street, and pray into it. And I've asked Greg Hood to open up some prayer and to lead off. It was his dream. He had some insight into the dream. And so then we'll follow up with that. I want to say thank you to every one of you that are so faithful. I Appreciate the hosts that are on tonight. All of the participants that are so faithful to come on to these calls five days a week and on Tuesday nights, we bless you, we thank you for your power of agreement. We thank you for your emails, your decree's and your declarations. So, Greg, you're with us tonight. Open us in prayer, my friend, and give us some insight on what God is revealing to you out of this dream.

Greg Hood [00:01:20] All right. I'll do that. I'll do that. Father, we just thank you for this time tonight. Father, we thank you for everything that you're doing in our nation. Father, there are things that we see that we don't like, but there are things that we know that are happening, Father, even behind the scenes, Father that {inaudible} even revealed to us {inaudible} time that is bringing our nation back into alignment with what you called it to be. Father, I pray for every host tonight here. I thank you for stirring the prophetic within them. God, we just put a demand on their giftings and Lord, we just begin to pull that from them tonight. Father, we thank you, Lord. Even the apostolic gifts that are here tonight, we thank you, Lord God, that they are being stirred and as they decree. And as they see Father, I thank you, God, tonight things are shifting in our nation. Father, I thank you tonight, God, for your blessing upon us. For all those that are here that are agreeing with us in prayer and making their decrees and releasing prophetic words from wherever they are. So, Lord, we just bless you tonight. And we thank you for what you're doing on this call tonight to shift America in Jesus mighty name. Well Clay, I'll read this first part of the dream and then I'll just share a minute from it. It starts out-- the dream started with Dutch and I. We were standing in the middle of what we thought were all fields like you see in Texas. Oil whales were everywhere, many different sizes and shapes. And I commented to Dutch: these are not traditional wells. These are special wells. Look at how they're shaped and how they're spaced apart. We began to walk around the field looking at each well, examining their components and how they were made. And then I said to Dutch, these wells are steel. They're not moving. They're orphaned. Dutch said to me, I know these wells. I've studied them all. their blueprints were given to me in my engineering class. Just a note here, I know Dutch is not an engineer, but in the dream he had an engineering degree. I know how these wells worked and how they were designed to never stop gushing. But someone's tampered with them and they're dunamis seal has dried and cracked. They cannot hold the current level of pressure any longer. Dutch pulled a handkerchief from his right rear pants pocket as we walked up to one of the wells deep into the field; an old well. he began to rub the engraved plate that was on it. As he was rubbing, he began to read from the engraved plate. I could see that Dutch's facial expressions begin to change. It was one of excitement and sadness at the same time. The engraved plate read: Fulton Street Well. Right under it was written: Dutch, don't throw in the towel. Prime me with Mayim. I could see that I was taken aback by this in his countenance, which changed into that the one that revealed intense thinking and consideration. Dutch turned to me and said, Give it to me, it's time. And as he said this, we could see an angel approaching us from the distance. I reached into a bag and I was carrying over my shoulder and I pulled out a small bottle in the shape of a lion's head And it was labeled Miyam for priming. I gave it to Dutch. He then poured it over the primer seal of the well that was dry rotted, one that was dried and cracked. I could remember thinking to myself in the dream, this is not the way that you prime a pump. You got to pour the water into the primer. Dutch turned to me and said, By the way, you do not prime a well of revival the same way you try to maintain religion. Revival is in the seal. It creates the natural pressure that causes a gusher. Instantly, the pump mechanism on the well begin to move. It groaned deeply as it began to move like an old engine trying to start that had not been turned over in years. We could hear the water beginning to make its way up the pipe that was in the ground. And Dutch said to me, This is it. It's happening. Now, Ive got several thoughts about this, one of the things that Surprised me, Clay. And I'm sure you have the same thing and probably Ghina and others had the same thing happen. There are times that God gives us words, phrases, and things in dreams that we get that we don't know anything about. And one of the things here in this dream. matter of fact, out of all of the wells in this dream, the only one I was familiar with in any capacity was the cain ridge revival. And so as Dutch began to unpack this thing I just begin to be amazed at how this particular well; this Fulton Street well represented intersession. And I believe that's where we've been. this call is a big part of that intersession that has begun. And Clay, this call has ignited literally thousands of people around this nation and people from other nations as well to pray. So in some aspects, I think that this call has played a part in igniting or stirring up or priming what God's getting ready to do here in America and around the world. One of the things that struck me in the dream was that Dutch and I begin to walk around this field, there were many, many wells in this field. They were many shapes. They were many different sizes. They looked different from other ones. But God highlighted four of them, which tells me there are many more out there that can be tapped into, that can be revived and be brought back as all of the wells that were in this field had to do with revival. And I think as Dutch and I made our way into this field in the dream. As we begin to walk deeper into it, we begin to have the revelation of we needed to approach some of these wells. And also, as we got deeper into it, the Angel Gabriel started moving towards us and we didn't see him until we begin to deal with the well. And I think that's one of the things that is very important for us in stirring revival or releasing revival. We can't expect angels to get involved until we first put our hand to the well and whatever that is, whether it's an old well or whether we're digging new wells or whatever it is and God begins to release angelic help for us revelation and insight to be able to find out really what these wells are and begin to release. Now, Joanne and I were talking a little bit earlier, I know in the Cain Ridge Well, he took his hand and wiped it off, wiped off that engraved plate. In the first three, he used a handkerchief and we felt like that that handkerchief in these other wells were points of contact, things that were sent to us that created a point of contact for us to be able to have impartation from those things. But that one at Cain Ridge, Dutch used his hand, which he put his hands on it. And we're in something now that is hands on. Something that is not in our lifetime, but in the span of time closer than we've seen an awakening come. And so I think that as Dutch began to touch that one, that revival has been touching America forever and it's gone from generation to generation to generation. But this Fulton Street well is one of the amazing pieces to me, is that Dutch poured that water; that mayim, which talks about the river of the Lord, I believe, it's found in Jeremiah in the Old Testament. And he poured it on the seal. It was the dunamis seal that is what was dry rotted. We know that signs and wonders and miracles, the Holy Spirit, infilling of Holy Spirit in our life and in doing so, it was nontraditional because in my mind in the dream I was thinking--I didn't say it out loud, I thought it in my mind: This is not how you prime a well. but then Dutch immediately turned and he said: you don't prime Wells of revival the same way that you steward religion. That's one of the biggest things that stood out to me in this first well. And if we think we're going to be able to have revival and awakening the same way that we've had it through stewarding religion, we are deceiving ourselves. For we will not. We've got to be able to pour the primer into the right places or on to the right things. So I'm just seeing here that we are in this thing and we can't quit now. Man, this intercession piece has to go all the way through to the release of the Awakening, all the way through to the release of what God is doing in our nation and the nations of the world. And so that's why this call is so important, Clay. and the intercession that Dutch does and the teams he leads around the nation praying and other people praying that we have no clue that are praying. That's why it's so important to stay in this intercession, because this well caused the Cain Ridge well, which affected our nation, to erupt and to bring forth the awakening that we have been praying for. Now, I'm sure other people got insight into this. I'm gonna be quiet with it. I've talked 11 minutes, so I will give it back to you and I may chime in a little bit later.

Clay Nash [00:11:33] OK, Greg, thank you for that, is there is there anything, Greg, that you have stirring prophetic right now to speak in to this?

Greg Hood [00:11:44] Yes, Clay, I really feel that the Lord is saying to us that we have to keep this type of well rumbling in our land and this well rumbled throughout the whole dream. it got louder and louder and louder because it is this that's going to shift us. Many times when we think about revival and we think about awakening, we think about all the things that we can see, the signs and wonders of miracles, the large gatherings and {inaudible}. That's just a result of the intercession, of the prophetic piece of the intercession. And I really believe the Lord is saying to us, we've got to pay attention to the way that we're praying. We have to pray what we hear him say. We have to prophesy what we hear him say like in Ezekial when he Ezekial stepped to the Valley of Dry Bones, the Lord said to him: Prophesy this son, a man, and he did that. He prophesied exactly what the father said. So I believe That the Holy Spirit is giving us a warning and an encouragement at the same time that we need to keep this peace under under our hand. We've got to be praying. We've got to be prophesying and decreeing and interceding, bringing us into a place where all of these other wells are able to open, clay, because of this intercession piece; this prayer piece. I don't think it's just praying, asking God for things. But I believe this type of intercession, prophetic intercession, decreeing, partnering with God, doing what he says and releasing what he's saying in the earth concerning what he's wanting to do.

Clay Nash [00:13:25] Amen, thank you for that, Greg. And let me point this insight as I went over this dream, not just for tonight, but since Dutch begin to release it. You begin to release it: Wells are not about wells. Wells are about the source. So even though there were different wells, each one of the wells was reaching it. Yes, one was intercession, one was Cain Ridge. We can talk about that. But it is God that gives that. God is the source. And so the wells that we are tapping into, this Fulton Street well that we're talking about tonight and the intercession is about God, the Source. Well, I come from a well drilling family. And it was never about the wells that we dug. It was always about the source that we reached into and was able to bring to the surface. Tom, you're with us there in Texas, definitely an oil state. Been some other prophetic words since I've walked with you, about wells. And ya'll did a state tour based on some of that. What's in your heart tonight?

Speaker 3 [00:14:40] {inaudible}

Clay Nash [00:14:44] Say again?

Speaker 3 [00:14:51] Are you with us, Tom?

[00:14:53] Yeah, I'm here now. I, I thought I was unmuted but I muted {laughing}

Clay Nash [00:14:55] OK. Alright

Tom Schuleter [00:14:56] Sorry. Thank you all for always the privilege of being on the call whenever I'm able to do this. And I just wanted to say, Greg, I just had such a confirmation in my heart when you were talking about Fulton being about that intercession that is taking place. I can remember having conversations with Dutch even ten years ago of how we saw the changing mindset of what intercession was all about. that It's not just about praying for things and not just praying for Aunt Sue's toe and things like that, but it is digging very deep, going down into the depths of the well to what you were just saying, Clay. Going down to the root of this, going down to what the source is that we want to tap into. Because I'm just going to be very blunt here; most of the church right now is drilling shallow or dry wells because they have no desire to go down deep enough to where they will tap in to the Source, which is God and the intimacy, the fire, the power, the awakening that comes with that. And one of the things that we have experienced is that when you do those kind of things-- we have some background noise of some scratching and all that. I don't know what that is-- but as we have been carrying that out here in the state of Texas, it's been really interesting how the Lord has developed that that passion in us to go very, very deep. I want to give an example of just something that's happened over the weekend.

Some of y'all have heard this on the news and everything, and some of you may have not, but I want to go back to 2015, first off. it was the first year Representative Molly White at that time from Belton, Texas, which is just about an hour north of Austin, had arranged for us to come in and do a cleansing of the of the Austin, the state capital there in Austin. And then she arranged for us to be in a room where we could once a week pray while the legislation was in session. And so we we did that and we just started meeting with God. And he gave us all sorts of visions and instructions about "you are not to come in here with an old mindset of prayer". There was one moment when literally I felt like he was taking me above the group and looking down at it and saying, you need to go back and tell them to quit praying that way, because we needed to move into a revelatory decreeing type of prayer where we were listening carefully to what the Lord needed us to decree into that place and then decree it. OK. long story short, one of those times when we were in the capital, we probably had about 12 of us in the room that time praying, and several of us had images and we started speaking it out, of water like a river running down the hallways of the Capitol, up in the rotunda area, down in the offices area, the extension area where all the offices are. We just felt this water was rushing and we just kept on proclaiming in to it that Lord, you're here to wash, you're here to cleanse, you're here to awaken. You're here to wash away what needs to be washed away and bring new life into what needs to be brought in. Well, we were about halfway through that, and Molly White, this representative, came into our room and her first comment was, she hadn't heard any of our prayers, her first comment was, "what are y'all praying?" And we told her and we said, "why?" And she says, I'm on my way walking to this room. And I feel like I'm walking in like knee deep water and it's rushing around my legs. And so we just were excited and just, you know, just exuberant that we were praying. What people were experiencing. And we've been continuing to pray that. Well, all of a sudden this last weekend and we're still not quite sure why this happened. But all of a sudden, there is the windows up above the extension and above the Capitol started really leaking badly. They had just all been restored and it was like rain falling inside the Capitol. And the pictures were rivers running, literally rivers of water running down the hallways in the natural. And the Lord said, I am answering the prayers of my people and I am awakening my people. I am awakening the church and I'm awakening the nation. And not too long after that, I know all of you all have seen that just the next day, the storm that brewed over Washington, DC and another lightning bolt hit the Washington Monument. And we feel all of these are signs and wonders that the Lord is giving us right now that says the prayers... And I just I go back to the dream, Greg, that the Fulton represented this desire to pray, and even though it started with just a few men, it grew to thousands and tens of thousands and just exploded with what God desired for the nation in that hour. I believe that we have been in that same place. We may not see tens of thousands gathering in one place or here. I don't think it's about one place anymore. I think that's why you are seeing all all of these oil wells. There all over the place. They are popping up all over the place. We are seeing signs of flooding and in the spirit, as well as the natural taking place all over the state of Texas in some of the smallest towns, we are seeing renewal and awakening taking place. We're getting reports of those things. And it really is the awakening that is starting to happen. And we know that it is tied in with the first part of that dream, Greg, that Dutch was sharing when I was reading that I just exploded in my spirit. And so, Lord, I just want to prophesy into that. I wanted to decree into that. That Lord, the wells that have been there, the wells that have deliberately been wanting to dig, go to the deepest levels, to what you were saying, Clay, going down to the source, going down to the place of his glory, going down to the place of his presence, going down into the heart of God, that those wells are now exploding. The prayers that have been offered, whether it's ten years ago in the state capital, whether it be 15 years ago on the farmland in the panhandle of Texas or out in the middle of Kansas, wherever it is, all of these prayers, all of these things that have been motivated by a passionate desire going way beyond and above, just asking for things, but decreeing God's purpose, God's desire for the nation and for his Ekklesia and for the nations of the earth. It is now being unplugged and they've been primed. The prayers are being answered and we're beginning to see the flooding that is taking place. The rivers are rising. The wells are spurting forth with glory. We are seeing the heavens opening up. We are seeing places where it was dry and barren that are now bursting forth with new life. Yes, we've still got a lot of junk all around us, but God is on the move and I decree that into the nation. I decree that over all of those that are on the on the call right now and all that have been on the call continue to be steadfast and immovable in the work of the Lord, which is lifting up your intercessions based on what he has revealed into your heart, not just what you want, not what you desire, not based on the paradigms of religion, but based on this passionate desire to tap into the source of God and bring forth the awakening that is coming forth from these wells. We decree that from the state of Texas, a place abundant with oil wells, gas wells and water wells, we say open it up Lord, open it up and let what comes forth cover the nation with your glory in Jesus name.

Clay Nash [00:23:04] Thank you, Tom. We come into agreement with that and one of the things about it, as you were talking about the shift with intercession. You know, when that shift begins to take place, we begin to recognize what the intercessors, even though they are watchmen on the wall and we need that, they begin to shift from telling us what the enemy was doing or incoming attacks and begin to tell us what God was doing so we could better partner with it. And I feel in this dream, in this Fulton Street, is what we're going to another level. You know, actual wells where the oil wells, water wells, especially big irrigation water wells, all wells have stages. And what a stage is; it's an impeller and it pumps it up. The deeper well, the more stages you need, it pumps it up to the next stage. You can have a two stage, three stage, four stage and on up. And so it's not just this one impeller that's pushing the oil or the water all the way to the top. But it takes a series or stages of them, of these impeller, that push it up, push it up. And that's what creates volume and that's what maintains pressure. And the Ekklesia has stepped in to become this multi- stage well of producing the dumanis of God and the maturity that has come in the last 20 months are more of it. I mean, it's years, too, but there has been a real synergic release and exponential curve of dunamis that is coming out of it. And so it's just very, very, very significant what we're seeing and so each stage will push the liquid to the next stage and the next stage. And that's what produces the continuous and steadfast flow, but also builds the pressure. Regina, you're with us. What are you hearing to speak into this Fulton Street Well, and the intersection that is so are becoming stronger and stronger and our nation?

Regina Shank [00:25:28] Yes. Thank you so much for the opportunity to be on. I've just been reading through this and several things jumped out at me. The first thing when I was reading about the wells, they were called orphaned wells. And I began to think of First Corinthians 4:15 and it's talking in here: I'm not writing this to shame you, but to warn you, as my dear children, even though you have 10000 guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers. And so I feel like the reason that the well became orphaned is because we have not many fathers. And so I'm just going to go through this and just decree into what I'm hearing: Lord, I decree that you will raise up many fathers now to begin to father the orphaned wells and the orphan wells will no longer be orphaned but father they would be those that would be overseen by the leaders as leadership in your church Father, the Ekklesia. And so Lord I thank you that the wells will would no longer be orphaned. But now they are being fathered. They are being mothered, they are being looked at and they're bringing forth water once again and even oil from some of those wells. And then I went down here to the Fulton Street one where it said it had an engraved plate on it. Dutch pulled out his handkerchief from his right-rear pocket. He walked up to one of the wells deep in the field, an old well, he began to wipe off the engraved plate. And I just began to hear purpose, purpose from the engraved plate that every well has a purpose in it to bring forth the almighty revival throughout the world. And so Lord I decree into that purpose, especially the Fulton one God that you showed me even before I heard this dream, that that purpose for that well will come forth. And Lord I also ask your forgiveness where the wells have been dry rotted because they haven't been fathered or mothered, because they haven't been primed with the water of your word. And I ask God that you would bring that forth in Jesus name. And then I began to see over here, where it says: by the way, you don't prime well the same way you try to maintain religion. Revival is in the seal. And I begin to remember out of Revelation 5-8 about opening the seal and that Jesus was the one who was worthy to open the seal and reveal its content. And I believe that through this, Gabriel, who Was sent by the Lord to speak to Dutch and Greg in this in this dream and that Jesus is saying it's time to open the seal of revival again in this nation. And so, Lord, we thank you that you're able to open the seal and reveal the contents of the wells that are waiting to be opened. And then in the next paragraph, it says the pump mechanism on the well began to move. It groaned deeply. And I was so impacted by that, it groaned deeply. Because when a a well groans, that means it's about to bring forth again. And I remembered the intercession that God gives us, that it's groaning too deep for words. And I remember being in that kind of the intercession to bring forth many times. And here in Romans 8 verse twenty-two, it says, We know that whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to this present time. And I felt like the groaning of the well represents the groaning of God's people, and that is in their intercession with groaning too deep for words. And when I read that, I began to feel this groaning inside of me for the wells to be opened and for the water of salvation to come forth and the water of a revival to come forth in this nation. Romans 8:26 The groanings of the intercessors. And I remember years ago I was told about a church who had a powerful intercession group and they would go into their program and they would begin to groan and groan and groan. And as they did, that church had more salvations than any church in the city. And then they got a new leader and the leader didn't like the groaning and he shut down the groaning and that shut down the salvations. And so I just want to say to any intercessors on this call, anyone listening is that there are groanings within us to open those wells. There is intercession within us to open the Fulton Street well, again, and the others that are mentioned in these dreams. I believe the Lord is calling us to that place again. And many of us have groaned to bring forth before. We have groaned to bring forth into reality what isn't a reality in the spirit we give birth to that as a woman in labor gives birth to a child. And I believe that these dreams are a call to the groanings again. And I just decree over those listening that the groanings of God are going to come forth in the intercessors once again to bring forth the revivals that are in these wells. And so, Lord, I decree into those wells, God, that there will be those who will come to them and they will in the spirit realm and begin to groan for them to be opened and for the water that's in them to come forth once again. And then another thing, the Lord spoke to me and probably will to many people on this call, the Lord spoke to me to look at the history of revivals in my own state and to go back to those wells that did have revival and to re-dig them, to reopen them. And so I've got people even now doing research on the historic revivals in my state to go back and do what we need to do at those wells so that revival can come forth in our region as well as these huge revivals that changed America. And so that's pretty much what I had today. I feel like there's so much more in this to unpack, but those are the things the Lord gave me today as I was reading this and meditating on it. And I just feel it's so significant for the outpouring of God in this nation that we steward these wells that we father and mother them, that they are no longer orphaned, and that we groan to bring them forth once again in this nation. And even here locally I have asked for a room in our courthouse to have a noon prayer meeting. This prayer meeting in New York just impacted me so much, I thought, I've got to do something as well locally. And so we're going to do that. We're waiting for a yes on that room to give it to us for that noon prayer meeting that we want to have here. So I'm very much into these dreams. I'm excited about what God is saying through them and I'm going to continue to pray into them. So they come forth with a mighty revival. I went further down and where the probably not supposed to unpack the next one. But I tell you what jumped out at me too, about the tenants well, and the wood and the pulpits that were the wood for the fire. And I've got something on it, I don't think this is the night for that, but there's just so much in this that I'm just so happy to be a part of and pray into.

Clay Nash [00:33:13] OK, thank you, Regina. Appreciate that. And we're going to continue on Tuesday nights to go into these wells. Pat, what's in your heart?

Pat McManus [00:33:25] Thank you for the opportunity to share with you guys. And in this powerful revelation that's coming from everybody thought. And the one part that really stuck out to me is the primer seal that was dry rotted. I used to be a mechanic many years ago. And you always had to grease a seal to make it where it would fit properly and effectively, but would be secure in a pipe or in a shaft or whatever. And when it talked about pouring on the pore over the seal is to make it flexible and pliable, to be able to adhere to a form, if you, for lack of a better word, of a suction or a seal part where you could draw from. And as I was looking at this and just listening to what's going on as a primer seal and what you shared about the depths, it caused us to be able to call on the depths of revelation through our intercession to be able to pull up the deep things of what God is wanting to be revealed or to pull into the deep, pull from the deep revelation, insight and understanding, to be able to hear, to see and to know that the levels of movement, but the part that needed to be we needed to be receptive to receive the pouring or the refilling or repositioning or realigning. And so as they climbed it, it was repositioned for the purpose of drawing or being a seal to draw up and to be able to get the depths of what God wanted to see accomplished through the means of intercession. So it was forming a seal for the purpose of being able to draw in or to be able to see the greatness of what God is trying to bring in from the depths of our hearts, but also in the depths of regions to see what God was wanting to pour out into the territory of what God wanted to see accomplished in those specific places or regions like Regina shared, I really keen on that orphan thinking, but help and understand to be able to connect the reality of life or to begin to start putting in sonship. And when you receive the pouring of the Lord, you come into a greater place of sonship and your understanding the seal that God is placing upon you like it says in Ephesians, too where we know the depths of where God's trying to take us to. So I'll just pray it this way. And that's all I have to say of that. But Father, I ask that you release the pouring out for the purpose of confirming a ceiling of our lives in you, to be able to draw into the depths of what you want to see established as we pull on the revelation of what you're releasing and revealing as we continue to pray and that you continue to expose or you begin to bring to light the depths of how the movement of what you want to see accomplished as we draw on the depths of your heart in every region and territory that you have positioned us in. Father, we thank you for the sealings of making it tight, making it right, and bringing us into a right order to be able to hear your heart in ways that we've never seen to the depths of your heart, that we've never heard, to the depths of revelation that we're willing and yearning to see come forth. And that father, as you bring the dunamis revelation of how you want to see established in territories, that we will see the priming of our lives that coming to right alignment with you. So thank you, Father, for sealing us closer and tighter and having a greater point of influence because of what you're releasing and releasing the power of your glory from the depths of your heart into realms in society in regions and territories to see true transformation come place. so father, thank you for sealing us and bringing us tighter and closer to the understanding of your heart and giving us revelation for the movement of how we need to move forward into our tomorrow as we press into the next and the next the next wells to where we see the depths of your heart given revelation for tomorrow to see the purpose of your hand revealed. We thank you, father in Jesus name. Amen.

Clay Nash [00:37:26] Amen thank you, Pat. We appreciate that. And I just want to declare over that our intercession that's represented by this Fulton Street, that we're going to another level. We are birthing in this nation, the awakening. We're birthing the Reformation. We're birthing the transformation that's coming to this nation. And I just declare over the intercessors, the Ekklesia, the praying church that's on this call that God is going to fine tune and synergize our intercession together. And you know, it's time to breathe deeply and push for many intercessors and birth that which you've been birthing through prayer. And it's time for it to come forth. So get ready for this Jacquie Tyre, What's in your heart?

Jacquie Tyre [00:38:32] Oh, Clay, I am so excited over this and I'm excited in a fresh way just because I texted Greg just a minute ago and I asked him when did he have this dream? Because I told you earlier today that I was going to look for when I had heard the Lord say, and I will read exactly what I wrote in my journal, and then I'm going to tell you when I wrote it. And then I'll tell you what Greg said about when he had the dream. On July the 19th. It was a Monday morning. I remember it. It was very early. I heard the Lord say Jeremiah Lanphier's 1800s prayer meeting that opened the way for the second Great Awakening has been reignited in our day, even through the 222 prayer calls and others. And it it blew me away when he said it. I had studied Jeremiah Lanphier probably twenty, twenty five years ago at the Fulton Street Revival, but hadn't thought of it in a very long time. So it was a surprise. So when I texted Greg, he said, if I remember correctly, I had that dream on July 18th, that we both had that same time and he did not know who Jeremiah Lanphier was. I think he shared that earlier. But that, I felt like was just such an incredible thing that we really are in the middle of this. It's not something that is coming it. We are in it and it is growing. And clay, I really appreciate what you just said about going into another level, because the other thing is I prayed into this and actually just had a portion of this manifested in our Tuesday night class at City Gate Atlanta, was God saying remove the things that block the flow of the well. And for intercessors and for all of us to remove those things and that block our ability to hear clearly the voice of the Lord, those things that block our ability to believe that what God is saying he will do, remove those things where we've gone into hope deferred discouragement, even making judgments against people, places, things even against God himself, because it hasn't always worked the way we thought it would. And as we get rid of those, those things that would block us and allow the blood of Jesus like pouring on those seals to open up, there is a release of a authority and a clarity in intercession that will shift atmospheres. I'm going to tell you, we supernaturally, just by the leading of the Lord for the last two hours, went into a time we were going to adjust....We were in a straight go into praying for Afghanistan. And at the beginning, the Lord led us through a time of cleaning out the wells. And I didn't use that terminology. But as I looked at it, that's what we were doing. And we went through a season of Deliverance. We went through a season of breaking generational curses and mindsets and belief systems, doctrines that we had been taught that would hinder and limit us in our ability to move with the authority of heaven in our intercession to release what he wants to accomplish incredible things in the earth. And so I just want to pray over us that the water being poured on the sill is the water of the washing of the word of God. And we're coming into a greater measure of freedom. The well is getting primed. It is flowing in a greater measure. There is a release of the power and the authority of the spirit of God through the Ekklesia through people moving out of praying one way and a loosing of the breaker anointing upon the intercessors and upon the gatherings of intercessors and congregations. Ekklesia gatherings for this call, but also Lord in all of our places scattered across this nation. I declare and decree that there is a fresh surge of cleansing of the of the altars and cleansing out of the wells that those boulders of past doctrines and traditions of man that have kept us locked into one place and believing only so far that they are being pulled up. They're being removed. Men and women, young and old, are being set free in the name of Jesus to hear more clearly, to have faith arise, confidence arise, boldness to arise, courage to arise, and fresh revelation that comes to loose a surge of intercession that will transform this nation because you God are birthing it out of your heart and you're releasing it through a purified people, a people that have surrendered, a people that are filled with faith and confidence and a fresh anointing to believe you and to stand with you and a partnership that is happening with the angel armies that we are discerning what is happening in heaven. We are moving with you on earth and we are moving together in such a way that it will cause an astonishment to come to the nation and the nations of the world. So, Father, we say open up this well, let the fires of Awakening come through the intercessors with a greater and increased authority and passion to cry out, but also to declare, decree and to war because they've heard from heaven, we have heard from heaven, and we will not relent until we see the fullness of your purposes established on Earth, even as it is in heaven, in Jesus name. Amen.

Clay Nash [00:44:54] Amen. Thank you, Jacquie. Appreciate that. Let me just add a little bit more natural information. There are some wells that are deep because the water is deep in the earth. The well we have here at the Ark is four hundred and eighty feet deep. Now they hit water at about two hundred, I think one hundred and ninety feet. Two hundred feet. But a deep well is dug to produce a volume, especially in big irrigation wells of water, but also in oil wells. You go deeper so that when you can set in a bigger well and you can get more volume without pumping it dry, because if you pump the hole dry doesn't necessarily mean it's completely dry, but it means it's not flowing into the casein as quick as it's being pumped out. And so digging deep wells is so that you can get that continuous flow of oil. And that's what we're looking for. That's what we're doing this because like it was said in the beginning of the call, it's not about the well, it's about the source of getting there. Well, we're honored and privileged tonight. Dutch is with us. Dutch what's in your heart? what in this... I know this dream really grabbed you. I could tell by your passion on the GiveHlm15. But what can you contribute?

Dutch Sheets [00:46:31] Well, this appreciate all the insights and appreciate Greg, who to whom the Lord gave this, it it is a profound dream. Every part of it to me confirms, quote, what we've been hearing regarding what God is about to do. You know, he gives us little pieces and dreams like this and insights from scripture, etc.. But the encouragement, the main encouragement to me is, hey, this is coming, this is happening. And so I appreciate that and I appreciate all the insight I'm hearing tonight. It always happens when we get together like this. And I appreciate that. But I'll just mention one thing that I don't think was mentioned. I got on late as I texted you, had tornado warnings here and I was monitoring some things for the first 10, 15 minutes. But I don't think it was shared. And that is when I referenced John Chapter 7 where Jesus, because obviously the water is the water of the spirit. It's it's the river of God. It's the river of life. And Jesus spoke of it in John 7, when he said, if anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. And out of his belly or innermost being will flow rivers of living wate. And the word belly or innermost being is qualia, which means a womb. And so to me, when I see that, I think immediately of reproduction, the water in us is supposed to bring forth life that can be reproduced. And the phrase rivers of living water is the same phrase that's used in Revelation 22 when it says: the river of life flowed out of from the lamb on the throne into the river and then fed the trees or nourished

the trees on either side of the river, the leaves of which were for the healing of the nations. The point being that which was flowing out of the lamb, which is described as this river of life, ultimately was bringing healing to the nations of the earth. And so he says to us that which will ultimately heal everything from me, that which will bring restoration to the entire earth, is supposed to be flowing out of you, out of us. Now, Obviously not the level it flows out of Christ, obviously, he'll do things we could never do in one day or restore everything fully, but we are supposed to be releasing that same restorative life giving river now from our womb, our spirit, which will release a life in the earth. So, yeah, he's the source. But I like to say we're the well, we are the reservoir, the place that houses his life, his water. So that was encouraging to me. I see what God is doing right now is he's filling his people with what is needed for what is coming. You know, there is a people in the earth that is responding to him. They are responding to him. And that is what is going to enable him to bring forth his gushing water into the earth. I'm very encouraged by this dream. I'm very encouraged by this one. I personally believe and I think I said this in the post this well has been being restored for for years now. I think in the 90s when the prayer movement really began in the earth was the beginning of this. And I think now it is at a point where God has a mature expression of intercession, a mature expression of authority in the earth that, as Tom said, can move beyond just praying for our personal needs, but can bring forth his life to nations. And I think we're going to do that. I believe we're going to see entire nations transformed. I believe America is going to be transformed. I believe other nations will be transformed. So I'm just encouraged. I would just say to everyone, just keep pressing into this. Allow that river to flow from you. Stay thirsty, keep drinking. That's what the text says. He who is thirsty. Let him keep coming to me and keep on drinking. And he'll keep on being filled and the river will keep on flowing. That's what the Greek said. So Lord, we thank you for this dream. We thank you for the encouragement. We thank you for building on what you did in the past. We thank you that in your ways and the way you move and think and operate, we don't have to start over. We can tap into the synergy of the ages. We can come into agreement with Jeremiah Lanphier, and the tens of thousands that joined him in intercession. And we can say, lord, we are a part of another release of that well. tens of thousands of people are praying around the world. Millions of people are praying, And so to Lord we we thank you that that will release what it did then, but more. That the river is going to go to more people in this hour. Millions of people are going to drink from this water. They're going to be born again. Nations are going to come to you. They're going to be born again in a day. Zion is traveling. The groaning has begun and we are releasing it. And Lord, we are the expression. We are the release of your river into the earth. So we say: we release it now come forth, river of God, out of your people now and flow into the cities, the nations, the homes, the businesses, the governments flow, Let your river flow. We say it is being primed. The Mayim water of Holy Spirit is being poured over the seal once again and this well will function the way it was intended to function in the name of Jesus. We agree for this. We thank you for it, Lord. And we believe it is happening in Jesus name.

Clay Nash [00:53:01] Amen. Thank you so much for for that and everyone keep pressing in on this. I believe there's more to be revealed out of these dreams. I somehow begin to sense tonight when Greg was first laying out the dream at the beginning of the call, there was a dream that Gina Gholston had about a tractor and to me in that dream, one of the things that I feel Holy Spirit revealed to me, that it represented the reaper overtaking the planter --You know, with that-- and I believe that these wells are going to give an exponential curve of increase of people being born again and discipled and the the Ekklesia growing and maturing in a in a tremendous way. So keep pressing in. We'll be here on the call tomorrow at 222. And next Tuesday night We're going to focus again on another aspect of this dream. We're trying to keep these things out. tonight. Call the transcribed. It certainly has been recorded and we'll be putting it up on the website so that you can can get to it. So we bless you tonight and just know that the groanings of that well is actually creation, crying out for the manifestation of the mature sons of God; the Ekklesia. So I bless everyone on the call. I thank the hosts. Thank you, Dutch, for making time out of your busy schedule. But I thank all of the hosts for being on and contributing tonight. And we'll be here tomorrow at 222. God bless you all.
