

Declaration for the Ekklesia

By Clay Nash

May 2024

I am speaking to you as a citizen of the Kingdom of Yahweh, a people called to be God's functioning legislative body...today and every day.

As a citizen of the Kingdom of Yahweh, I speak to you from a completed faith, standing unmovable in conviction that the tyranny of hell being fueled by those calling good, evil and evil, good, must cease and desist.

We assemble as free men and women, acknowledging that our freedom comes entirely from our total dependency upon Yahweh.

We acknowledge that we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, yet there is a war raging to strip us of our freedom.

We declare that we will fight and continue to fight. We will fight...and win.

Yes, while many in the church say we cannot win, we decree that there is a cause. In that cause, there is a history of justice and righteousness that has prevailed and will prevail again. Our stand will bring freedom to the generations that follow us.

Yes, many are saying "Run, that we will not die."

We answer from the words of William Wallace, "Aye, fight and you may die. Run and you'll live—at least a while."

Yet the hand of Yahweh is good upon America, and the stewardship of America can and will be essential in the billion-soul harvest that is at hand.

Therefore, encourage your heart. Renew your mind. Strengthen your fellow Ekklesia. Gird up the loins of your mind with Kingdom truth. This is not a time to be fainthearted.

From the writings of Rudyard Kipling, you must know there is a time to keep our heads when all about us are losing theirs and blaming it on us.

It is a time to trust ourselves even as all mankind doubts us.

It is a time to not be wearied by well doing. To not lie even when lied about. To love even when hated. To meet with triumph and disaster and treat both imposters just the same.

We must endure even as we hear the truth we've spoken being twisted by Leviathan to trap the foolish.

My fellow Ekklesia, we must allow all mankind to count with us, but not allow one individual to count too much.

We must fill each unforgiving minute with sixty seconds worth of Kingdom purpose run.

Then they will see that the earth is the Lord's and all that's within it.

They will witness that the Kingdom has not been shaken but stands true and strong, filled with undeniable grace that is sufficient for all things.

So, my fellow soldiers, fully embrace the unforced rhythms of Yahweh's grace and endure hardship as a good soldier of Yeshua the Christ.

For his kingdom! For his glory!
