

February 21, 2023

By Clay Nash

Oklahoma, in just over 20 years I your Lord have watched you gain ground and you have given up ground. However, know that from the start I have imprinted you with the stamp of my spirit, says the Lord. It is a time to turn the fire up in Oklahoma and move the pot from the back burner to the front burner. For I am visiting the places of former out-pouring and wells that flowed with healing, fresh and new. For many seek to sustain old moves and days of glory now gone by. I the Lord say that Oklahoma will experience becoming a new wineskin filled with new wine following to the nation. This wine will put a glow upon the faces of all that taste and see I am a good God, seeking to redeem the innocent blood shed on your soil. I am about to reverse my hand in Oklahoma and the last shall become first. The outpouring of my healing will come forth, but no significant name shall be attached. It shall be not confined to tents, but will be found under tents. It will be a new movement of my body being healed as it becomes fitly joined together. As the Body of Christ stands to its feet in this new movement it will carry forth healing grace to the lost, it will cause eyes to be placed on Me by experiencing the movement of my love through my body. The new sound that is being released will result in a new cadence that creates a thus forth going as one. Oklahoma, you will bear forth a new model to swing the old out and usher in the new. Oklahoma, spit shine your boots, lace them up tight and get ready for a long march. Oklahoma, you are my boots on the ground.