Prophetic for Georgia
By Regina Shank

The alignment of ministries and purposes in Georgia is coming together. I began to see a very narrow curving road. The hand of the Lord pulled the road forward so that it straightened and was able to avoid the previous precipices that had the ability to sidetrack ministry vehicles. His hand took hold of the curving road and pulled it forward to straighten it out. The road was still narrow; the vehicles were trying to pass each other to get to some kind of destination. It was dangerous to try passing on the curving narrow road. The road shook and some vehicles ended up in the ditch, not able to enter the highway again.

Suddenly, the Lord's hand picked up each chosen vehicle and rearranged their position on the road. It became a caravan rather than a race to be first. God intervened in the competition and brought apostolic order to Georgia.

Some of the vehicles were licensed and some licenses had expired but were still trying to navigate the road. A roadblock was just ahead and those unlicensed would not be able to move forward beyond the checkpoint without a new license given by the authority.

Getting on the road again required an engine overhaul and a "yes" from the toll road authority of the glory path. The price had to be paid.

I saw highway 70 going from south to north. I heard Psalms 70.

Please, God, rescue me!

Come quickly, Lord, and help me.

2 May those who try to kill me
be humiliated and put to shame.

May those who take delight in my trouble
be turned back in disgrace.

3 Let them be horrified by their shame,
for they said, "Aha! We've got him now!"

4 But may all who search for you
be filled with joy and gladness in you.

May those who love your salvation repeatedly shout, "God is great!"

5 But as for me, I am poor and needy;
please hurry to my aid, O God.

You are my helper and my savior;
O Lord, do not delay.
