I declare the people of this Nation, will operate as reformers. We as followers of Jesus will have an unwavering allegiance to the Son of God and the Kingdom of God. I declare we are willing, able and passionate to take on the challenge of paying price and the cost of protecting the biblical principles America was founded on. I declare with our hearts of purity and a lives led by holy fear for our Creator God Almighty we will live the life of a reformers. I declare we live under the flag of the red, white, and blue, but are guided by the banner of the blood of Jesus and the word of the Living God. I declare with our hearts of surrender we will not allow the darkness to steal the life of the unborn. I declare with hearts of surrender we will not allow the evil seed of Islamic influence to rule in the United States of America. I declare with hearts of surrender we will not allow the sacred covenant of marriage between one man and one woman to continue to be trodden under foot. With a hearts of reformation we will choose to operate with hearts of violent worship - unselfishly devoted to ushering in the glory of God that crushes the enemy's camp. I declare with hearts of surrender we will not live within the four walls that has come to be called the church and will not be ruled by fear and intimidation of man, nor the democratic party, nor the rinos nor any party. I declare with hearts of surrender we will challenge the culture and effectively aid in the transformation of the culture and the resetting of this nation. I declare with hearts of surrender we will overturn ungodly principles and decrees declared from the mouths of evil representatives who have staked their unrighteous place in the political arena. I declare our ears will always be inclined to the voice of the Captain of the Hosts Jesus. I declare we will make a solemn vow to live the life of a reformers. I declare our “yes” will be “yes”, and our “no” will be “no”. I declare that as we seek first the Kingdom of God we will walk in authority to execute righteous judgments in this land Your Land God. I declare that our footsteps of obedience will be burned into the ground and it will cause a holy consumption of all unrighteousness. I declare our war cry of reformation will always be centered, rooted, and grounded by the word of God and Kingdom of God. I declare these things over all political leaders and I declare, let these words become the boundaries for their stand of responsibility in that place. I declare that we will be a catalyst to turn hearts. I declare the anointing that we will bring as Your Ekklesia is going to cause some of those that are on both sides, that are fearful of things being done to them, and threats that will be made to them, they are going to step up, man up and surrender to God’s will. We will not fear what can be done to us. We are going to allow the conviction of God rule our hearts as never before. I declare that we can and will bring awakening, reformation, and transformation to the government and political arena of our Nation, Your Nation Father God! I declare these things in faith tonight. Lord we battle from your promises, Lord. You said you desire to put us in the center even as you did the Tree of Life so that we can bring about a reset in America. So Father, we thank you. Your words are settled in heaven and your words are sure and we stand with them and upon them through eternity.
