REDEDICATION DECREES

Authorities

Joshua 3:5 (AMP) - Then Joshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves [for His purpose, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you].

Joel 2:15–16 (AMP) - Blow the trumpet in Zion; set apart a fast, call a solemn assembly. Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children and the nursing infants. Let the bridegroom come out of his room and the bride out of her chamber.

Hebrews 10:20 (AMP) - By this fresh, new and living way which He initiated and dedicated through the veil (that is, through His flesh).

Habakkuk 2:14 (AMP) - But the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

Matthew 24:14 (AMP) - This good news of the kingdom [the gospel] will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end [of the age] will come.

Matthew 6:10 TPT - Manifest your kingdom realm, and cause your every purpose to be fulfilled on earth, just as it is fulfilled in heaven.

Psalm 33:12 AMP - Blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people He has chosen as His own heritage.

Proverbs 14:34 AMP - Righteousness (moral and spiritual integrity and virtuous character) exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.

Galatians 5:1 AMP - In [this] freedom Christ has made us free [and completely liberated us]; stand fast then, and do not be hampered and held ensnared and submit again to a yoke of slavery [which you have once put off].

2 Corinthians 10:4 AMP - For the weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood], but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds.

Psalm 2:7–8 AMP - I will declare the decree of the Lord: He said to Me, You are My Son; this day [I declare] I have begotten You. Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations as Your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth as Your possession.

Daniel 7:13–14 AMP - I saw in the night visions, and behold, on the clouds of heaven there came One like a Son of man, and He came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him. And there was given Him dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and His kingdom one which shall not be destroyed.

Revelation 11:15 AMP - The kingdom (dominion, rule) of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign forever and ever.

Revelation 2:26–27 AMP - And he who overcomes [who is victorious] and who obeys My commands to the very end, to him I will give authority and power over the nations; And he shall rule them with a scepter (rod) of iron…

Isaiah 9:6–7 AMP - For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder… Of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end…

Psalm 22:27–28 AMP - All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord; and all the families of the nations shall worship before You, For the kingship and the kingdom are the Lord's, and He is the Governor over the nations.

Matthew 28:18 AMP - Jesus approached and, breaking the silence, said to them, "All authority (all power of rule) in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.

Declaration of Independence para. 2 (U.S. 1776) ("We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights…").

Declaration of Independence pmbl. (U.S. 1776) ("the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God").

Declaration of Independence final para. (U.S. 1776) ("with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence").

U.S. Const. amend. I ("Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof…").

Northwest Ordinance of 1787, art. III ("Religion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.").

Joint Resolution to Amend the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, Pub. L. No. 83-396, 68 Stat. 249 (1954) (adding the words "under God" to the Pledge of Allegiance). "FROM THIS DAY FORWARD, the millions of our school children will daily proclaim in every city and town, every village and rural school house, the dedication of our nation and our people to the Almighty. To anyone who truly loves America, nothing could be more inspiring than to contemplate this rededication of our youth, on each school morning, to our country's true meaning. Especially is this meaningful as we regard today's world. Over the globe, mankind has been cruelly torn by violence and brutality and, by the millions, deadened in mind and soul by a materialistic philosophy of life. Man everywhere is appalled by the prospect of atomic war. In this somber setting, this law and its effects today have profound meaning. In this way we are reaffirming the transcendence of religious faith in America's heritage and future; in this way we shall constantly strengthen those spiritual weapons which forever will be our country's most powerful resource, in peace or in war."

George Washington, Farewell Address (Sept. 19, 1796) ("Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable supports.").

John Adams, Letter to the Officers of the First Brigade of the Third Division of the Militia of Massachusetts (Oct. 11, 1798) ("Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.").

Abraham Lincoln, Second Inaugural Address (Mar. 4, 1865) ("The Almighty has His own purposes.").

Mayflower Compact (1620) ("having undertaken for the Glory of God, and Advancement of the Christian Faith…").

Virginia Declaration of Rights § 1 (1776) ("all men are by nature equally free and independent, and have certain inherent rights…").

DECREES

We decree that the United States of America is "One Nation Under God," established under His authority, sustained by His providence, and accountable to His sovereign rule. We reaffirm before heaven and earth the declaration lawfully established on June 14, 1954, when the words "under God" were inserted into the Pledge of Allegiance as a national acknowledgment of dependence upon Almighty God.

We decree that the covenant identity of this Nation shall not be erased, redefined, or removed by the will of men, by corrupt systems, by revisionist ideologies, or by rebellious governance. The spiritual foundation upon which this Nation was established shall remain visible, acknowledged, and preserved throughout this land and throughout all generations.

We decree that the dedication spoken by President Dwight D. Eisenhower over the youth of this Nation shall stand and continue, that the children of the United States shall proclaim "the dedication of our Nation and our people to the Almighty." We decree that the youth of America shall not be surrendered to lawlessness, godlessness, confusion, deception, or national amnesia, but shall be awakened to the true meaning and purpose of this Nation under God.

We decree that the United States shall not anchor itself in "materialistic philosophy," violence, brutality, fear, or the threats of nations, but in the transcendent strength and sustaining power of faith in Almighty God. We decree that the spiritual weapons granted by God shall remain "our country's most powerful resource in peace and war."

We decree that the acknowledgment that this Nation is "under God" carries continuing authority over this nation. We decree that "the transcendence of religious faith in America's heritage and future" shall not be extinguished. We decree that the remembrance of the Most High God is restored and shall remain within the institutions, the people, the courts, the assemblies, and the governance of this Nation.

We decree that the rights and freedoms recognized within the United States do not originate from government, political parties, courts, agencies, or rulers, but from Almighty God alone.

We decree that this Nation remembers the covenantal dedication spoken at Cape Henry in 1607 by Reverend Robert Hunt and the first settlers who declared, "We do hereby dedicate this Land, and ourselves, to reach the People within these shores with the Gospel of Jesus Christ." We decree that this covenantal dedication shall not be forgotten, erased, or abandoned, but shall stand as a witness throughout all generations.

We decree that the Declaration of Independence, the founding covenants, the testimony of the Founders, the Cape Henry dedication of 1607, and the reaffirmation of 1954 stand as witnesses that liberty is derived from God and entrusted to mankind under His authority.

We decree that the phrase "One Nation Under God, Indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for All" shall remain an enduring proclamation over this Nation, its people, its territories, and its posterity. We decree that division, lawlessness, injustice, corruption, and national fragmentation shall not prevail against the plans and purposes of the Most High God for this land.

We decree that Justice shall be restored, Righteousness shall be exalted, Truth shall arise, and Liberty shall be preserved within the United States of America. We decree that the fear of the Lord shall once again govern wisdom, discernment, and judgment throughout this Nation.

We decree that transformation and reformation are advancing from glory to glory. We decree that the order and government of the Kingdom of God are established in their place.

We decree that hearts, minds, institutions, and governments are being reformed by Truth and by Fire. What has been corrupted shall be purified. What has been perverted shall be brought into alignment with Righteousness and Justice.

We decree that this generation shall possess the land prepared for them by the Most High God and shall not forfeit their inheritance. We decree that new heirs are rising into appointed positions and stewarding authority with wisdom, humility, and strength.

We decree that the ministry of the Angel Armies is increasing in activity, assignment, and effectiveness according to the command of the Most High God and that they are deployed in greater measure for protection and provision, and the fulfillment of Divine purposes.

We decree that the Kingdom of God is advancing rapidly and expanding exponentially throughout the earth and that His will shall be done in this nation as it is in heaven.

We decree that the Ekklesia of King Jesus functions in greater influence, discernment, and governmental power and authority.

We decree that from ever-increasing glory, the Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached throughout all the earth. We decree that the Gospel of the Kingdom shall be confirmed with signs, wonders, miracles, salvations, deliverances, and healings.

We decree that revival and awakening shall spread throughout cities, states, nations, and generations.

We decree that what was dedicated to God within this Nation shall no longer be used for corruption, rebellion, unrighteousness, or profaning purposes. We decree that America is marked again for the purposes, plans, and destiny established by the Most High God.

We decree that the United States of America remembers her God, returns to her covenantal roots, and realigns with the Lord Jesus Christ.

We decree that this rededication ushers in sustained reformation and not temporary relief. What God has begun shall be completed, and the glory of the Lord shall fill this land.

We decree that, by the authority of the blood, death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, we stand in agreement with heaven concerning the destiny, preservation, awakening, and restoration of the United States of America under the Most High God.

IT IS SO ORDERED ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN.
