

Prayer Call September 5, 2023

Clay Nash - All right, good day or good night, I guess it would be. We're back on our Tuesday night 9 pm Eastern time Victory from God's Promises call. We took yesterday, Labor Day, to have a day with family. Enjoy the Bar-B-Q, if that's what you did. But we're back on the wall tonight. I'm going to be sharing tonight a dream that actually came this morning. I find it very interesting, very deep. We're praying into it and I want to put it out there, in the hopes that something stands out to you in the dream and I would like for you to share that. And we kind of began to debrief it but one of the things that I'm focused on is the fact that I believe we need to spend more time in counsel and debriefing dreams and prophetic words. I know that God wants to raise the effectiveness of the Ekklesia to the highest point it's ever been. We've seen it over the last five to six – maybe as much as ten years grow tremendously, but it's still growing. And so, it's going to be a great night. I appreciate those that have been able to come on. And please, all the hosts, if you've got something different from the dream tonight that you need to declare and decree, I want you to have the liberty to do that.

This dream impacted me greatly. When I awakened and began to remember it this morning, this has been happening for some time, but I don't know how to explain it, don't even know if I have some good biblical words to tell you, but when I remember the dream and I set myself aside to attempt to get the words on paper, I began to have an encounter with Holy Spirit. And Holy Spirit began to open up and illuminate, amplify and magnify things that were said in the dream and that's what happened. I was very moved. It took a long time, shed a lot of tears as I wrote this dream, not tears of sorrow, just tears of feeling the presence - sensing the presence and experiencing the presence of God. So, I just declare on tonight's call we're going to find the vein of the heart of God. And as we find that prophetic vein, there's going to be insight, not just come out of this dream, but come out of words and experiences that we've had.

Father, I thank you for the opportunity to be part of what's going on in our nation as we equip and empower the Ekklesia, your legislative body, to a whole other level. We declare we are in the Roaring 20s, but that roar that's in the earth during this time is the roar of your authority. So, Father tonight, guide us, lead by Holy Spirit, and move us into that deep vein of revelation, of truth and of understanding that is needed at this time. So, Father, we just yield ourselves to you and we ask for Your guidance and Your revelation and spiritual understanding. And we do so in Yeshua's name, amen.

DREAM:

Well, this morning on the morning of September the fifth, I dreamed I was among many on a ship in the roughest seas I have ever seen. There was a report of a tidal wave that was coming. Many aboard this ship were at the point of panic. However, many were calm and composed. On the upper deck, those that carried the maturity of their Ekklesia experience were declaring and decreeing. The report had come that the ship had lost all ability to navigate. The navigation system had been rendered useless by an outside force and a system that had hacked into the ship's internal computer systems. Those assembled on the upper deck were seeking God for his strategy and sufficient grace. A prayer of unison was: "We stand here Lord, our faith completed and our dependence placed entirely upon You."

Dutch and Tim Sheets were of course, speaking from dreams and prophetic words. Let me back up to that, this is about Dutch and Tim, but it's about their role of leadership in the Ekklesia, as there are many others, Chuck Pierce, others across this nation. So Dutch and Tim were speaking from dreams and prophetic words that had come forth to the nation. I felt to slip away and seek God for a fresh word of insight. I began to travel down from the upper deck, and I passed by the captain's quarters. As I passed the door, the Justice Gate angel opened the door, he instructed me, or the angel instructed me to step in. The moment I stepped into the captain's quarters; the smell of strawberries became almost overwhelming. The Justice Gate angel spoke and said, "The angel of Salt and Light was there with a message for me to give to the nation." This angel who was the angel of Salt and Light, was different in this dream from any angel that I've ever seen both in dreams and through discernment of looking into the Spirit. The Salt and Light angel had a red glowing illumination around his form. When I see angels, they will have an illumination -- they're light beings, but they have an illumination of different colors. I've come to understand that deep purple, blue and deep purple, has to do with authority. But this angel had a red, a red glowing illumination around its form. When this angel spoke, the curtains in the room moved as if wind was blowing them. The voice that came forth was astounding but crackled as if age was affecting it. The angel of Salt and Light then instructed me that the Ekklesia, God's legislative branch, had released and secured four anchors that would now be sufficient in bringing about a constant securing and refreshing of covenant. The angel said, "Tell Dutch and Tim Sheets," representing the Ekklesia, "that the four anchors that are being placed are:

Number 1 - The Ekklesia have taken heart from God's covenant with them.

Number 2 - They are believing and contending with the unbelief.

Number 3 - They are unashamedly living out that they belong to God.

Number 4 - They are engaged in the highest level of serving God that has been seen," this is what the angel said, " that has been seen in the last 144 years."

The angel then released into my hand a white stone and stated, "Upon this stone is written a name for the USA." The angel said, "Only those of completed faith will be able to read it." And I was instructed to deliver it to Dutch and Tim Sheets representing the Ekklesia. The Justice Gate angel then led me from the captain's quarters to the upper deck. As we traveled, I was able to see the name of the ship we were on was "Constant State of America I also looked at the white stone and read and the words that were on that stone was "Susan Constant Covenant." Upon arrival at the upper deck, I presented the stone to Dutch and spoke to the team about the four anchors that were securing our nation from covenant. As we stood on the upper deck, the sun began to break through the darkened sky. And the smell of strawberries filled the air and people began to rejoice. (end of dream)

I don't understand the strawberries. I have had someone I've released the dream to and got back to me, I did not know this until today, but the name of the ship that Robert Hunt came over on to what has become known as Cape Henry was the Susan Constant. And of course, that's where the covenant was made.

Regina, I'm going to put you on deck first. And I want you to, please understand if you have something that stands out to you, please share it, but also if you've just got a declaration or decree into the nation, feel free to do that as well. But what's on your heart?

Regina Shank - Yes, thank you so much, Clay. I have read through your dream. In fact, I took it apart a little bit and began to pray over it. And I felt like the Lord said a few things to me. Of course, I think most of us realize this ship is America. But I was looking at the difference between those who are panicking and those who are calm, and many were in each of those places. Many were panicking on the ship because they were warned of the tidal wave. But there are others who were calm and composed. And I saw your declaration of the mature Ekklesia on the upper deck. And I felt like the upper deck represented, "Let's go higher." Let's go higher above the storm. Let's go higher against the threats that are coming against America. Let's walk in a higher place as the Ekklesia of God. And, you know, we recognize the ship had lost a lot of navigation system and all of that had been hacked. But in the upper deck, we were seeking God for his strategy and sufficient grace. And we spoke together the "Unison" prayer. And I believe in this time when the ship is being attacked that we have to be in unity. And of course, the prayer was "We stand here Lord, our faith completed, and our dependence placed entirely upon You." What a powerful prayer.

And then I began to see that even though we have these words from Dutch and Tim, that Clay you slipped away. You went to seek a fresh word of insight. And I think every one of us are called to do that even though we have these wonderful, accurate voices that we're listening to. We have to slip away, and you went - you traveled down from the upper deck which I believe represents humility. And you're going to pass by this headquarters of the captain, but you were allowed in by this angel. And this angel of Light and Salt - we're to be the salt and light in the earth. But you said you had the smell of strawberries and I looked up what that represents. And what I found was strawberries are symbols of purity and sensuality, fertility and abundance, humility, and modesty. They're a symbol of perfect goodness, because of their delicious flavor and fragrance. And so that smell, I believe, is the smell of our God. And so, as you smelled that, it was beautiful. And then also, as you went on, you began to see this manifestation of this angel and he had wind and fire. You said, "The red." And I thought well, I think that's fire. So, God is both fire and light, and salt and light. And I noticed the angel represented the Lord in that.

Now there's something else here I wanted to say. I saw the four things that the angel has said that we had done in America, one of them jumped out at me and that is that "The Ekklesia is engaged in the highest level of serving God that has been seen in the last 144 years." I did the math and 144 years ago is 1879. And that's when Maria Woodworth-Etter started her revivals in 1879. And we've had historic revivals, we've been praying through those. But God is saying that "we've grown, that we've come forth. And I think that's a good word from the Lord. And so also when we were talking about the stone, it said, "Susan Constant Covenant" and you said that was the ship. But I looked up Susan and it means, "the lily of the valley." And then I also thought, you know, even you Clay, you're married to Susan. And that covenant is strong, That covenant is with your marriage, and I believe as we are the Bride of Christ, that we need to claim that stone too, that we are constant in our covenant with the Lord. And we know that He is the Lily of the Valley, and the Bright and Morning Star and when you smelled the smell of strawberries again. So, I just pray, Father, that as we unpack this dream that you know is so strong and so much from You. Lord, I thank you that you are with your people. That you know the ship of America is in your hands. And that we are going to navigate these waters, Lord, and you are giving us a promise, Father. And as we stand on the upper deck, and we begin to decree and as we go to the lower place and humble ourselves and ask for greater revelation, I thank you for that, Lord.

And then I thought of this scripture in Psalms 18, Verse 25, "To the faithful, you show yourself faithful. To those with integrity, you show yourself, integrity. To the pure, You show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd and you rescue the humble." So, Lord, we thank you that you're giving us light through this dream, and you are navigating us through waters that seem very adverse to this nation, but Lord, I thank you that you are with the ship of America. And Lord, I pray that you would continue to give revelation about the unpacking of this dream. And Father, that we would more and more be ready for what's coming, for whatever that tidal wave looks like, for whatever that shaking looks like, Lord, that we would be ready, our eyes would be fixed upon you. And we thank you that you are going to bring us through any storm in this nation. So, thank you for dreams from heaven, God. Thank you for revelation of those dreams and in those dreams and through those dreams, and we will navigate these waters and get to the intended destination. America shall be saved. Amen.

Clay Nash - All right, Regina, I appreciate your input there. Several things just really stirred my spirit. I just had a spiritual daughter out in Arizona send me some information. And also, strawberries speak of -- I'm trying to go back and find the text, I want to say, it's about friendship with God. And you know, I believe we are in a time that we must develop a higher level of our friendship with God. And I said something Sunday, and I know sometimes when we preach something it can get, could get into a dream. But I said something Sunday and one of my spiritual sons caught it. And I said, "You're not called to be salt and light of the church. You're called to be salt and light in the earth." And I find it very interesting that this angel, who I've never seen before, never had any experience with. I've been given since I was born again, of seeing angels, and I don't want to make it common but it's very commonplace in my walk with God. But I find it very, very interesting about the Salt and Light Angel and looking forward to see if this becomes a -- no pun on that, but a constant thing like the Justice Gate angel has. Pat, my friend, what are you hearing?

Pat McManus - Well, thank you, sir, for the opportunity to be with everyone and I agree with what Regina shared -- deep insight and understanding there. I just want to jump out onto you had the four numbers and I just, as I read the thing, though two of the numbers stood out, one of them Regina talked about, the number three. It says, "They are unashamedly living out that they belong to God." And there's a greater awareness of the identity that's igniting within the hearts of the Ekklesia because there's a whole lot of people that know the terms without revelation. And there's a strategy of revelation coming to the Ekklesia to have a clear understanding of what it means to be a son and daughter of the King - functional authority with original identity of what God intended us to function from, to be able to facilitate the strategies in the heart of God. And the other part of "they are engaged in a higher level of serving." In other words, they're coming to a different depth of revelation, insight and understanding how to impact culture to transform communities to see the Kingdom of God advance in every aspect. In other words, bringing the seven mountains into alignment to the strategies of God's heart to be able to see the purpose of His hand prevail.

And Zechariah chapter 8, verse 23 says, "Thus saith the Lord of Hosts: in those days 10 men from every language of the nation shall grab onto the sleeve of a Jewish man and say, 'Let us go with you. For we have heard that God is with you.'" The demonstration of Kingdom authority igniting the hearts of those that are willing to stand to effectively implement the strategies of God's heart throughout the nation and the nations of the earth. And I agree with what Regina said when we had to go to a place, to come down to a place of resting in God. In other words, you got to go to that place where you have the encounter, where you can come to face to face and hear the heart of the Father to be able to know how you need to move forward in where God's taking us. I'll share one more scripture verse, Isaiah 41:10. It says, "Fear not, for I am with you. Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. I will help you. I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."

So, Father, I ask that as we stand and listen and hear your heart that strengthening comes within that gives confidence and boldness as we recognize to a whole different level of what it means to walk effectively as the apostles did in Acts chapter four and began to march out with authority that brought reformation and transformation to nations. So, Father, bring us to that place. Strengthen our hearts and help us to understand the fulfillment of your words as you ignite your strategy in the hearts of your people to effectively march in the order of your hands. We thank You Father, in Jesus' name, amen and amen.

Clay Nash - All right, Pat, good insight there. We're unpacking this dream tonight, and I'm thankful to all of you and your input. Jacquie, I see that someone finally paid the ransom and you got released from the sun and the sand and the water. And it's good to have you on the call tonight. So, what's in your heart?

Jacquie Tyre - Oh, it was great to be away, but I am glad to be back. And your dream is filled with so much and Pat and Regina both have brought excellent insights. But what really stood out, if I can just land on one - a couple of things, is that those who were of the Ekklesia were securing the entire boat. They were on the top even though the ship had lost its ability, the navigation system rendered useless, all of that, the Ekklesia was seeking God for strategy and sufficient grace and praying in unison, praying in agreement, and there was an alignment for the assignment that was happening in this dream in order to secure the total. It didn't take everybody. It took the Ekklesia. It took those who had come into the place of maturity - had come into a place of trust, of faith, of knowing that we serve a God, and in that place we are unshakable, always abounding in the grace of the Lord. And out of that place, such great authority comes because when we are aligned, when we are submitted to the ways of the Lord, submitted to, I believe, the leadership that is demonstrated by both Dutch and Tim but also Clay, by you going and pulling away, as Regina so aptly pointed out, the fresh word that moving together the apostolic and the prophetic and that the angel of Salt and Light. You know, I kept thinking about the verse that says, you know, what good is salt, and I'm not quoting this exactly, what good is salt if it loses its flavor or saltiness. And I believe this angel of Salt and Light - where the church at large over the years in many ways, we had lost our saltiness and we had allowed our light to be put under a bushel but this angel of Salt and Light with that red- and what rose in my spirit on that was, red can often speak of the apostolic. I just know the Lord spoke that to me years ago. I can't give you a lot of documentation or anything else behind it. But that's what rose up in my spirit and I believe that the angels are coming alongside of the apostolic leadership in this nation to bring the Ekklesia into a greater measure of alignment so that the saltiness and the light of the Ekklesia is being restored and placed. Declarations and decrees are coming forward that are going to secure this ship, keep it from being capsized or destroyed even though the outside forces have come in and messed up the navigation system and everything else. The Ekklesia is taking our place in alignment with heaven. And one of the things the Lord spoke to me earlier today that I'll release this and then release the decrees, is agreement with the Lord, His Word, His will and His ways, which I believe are revealed in this dream, moves us into alignment with his purposes, as we are positioned for the assignment, then authority can be released and increased in an authenticity of faith.

So, Father, I thank you for divine revelation through this dream. I thank you for Apostle Clay grabbing this dream in the night season, recording it, remembering it, bringing it forth to us tonight. Father, I thank you for the divine insights that are coming forth as we press into you. And I thank You, Father, that though there are many in this nation, many even in the church in this nation that are filled with panic that are not knowing what to do, and even like in a figurative sense in many ways, running into the hull of the ship, hiding out, God, that I thank you, that you have a righteous remnant, a bold, righteous remnant that isn't running to hide but is running into a higher place and you coming through the open door of invitation that you have given us to move with greater revelation, greater insight. And as we submit to you, submit to those that you have positioned in leadership, even apostolic leadership in this nation, as we are heeding the word of the Lord through men and women of God across this nation that have your heart, have your -everything that you want for this nation and we are aligning with You that you are releasing an increase and an authenticity of faith that is manifesting in greater authority.

And I say Father, in the name of Jesus, we decree over this ship, Susan Constant, that we will stand. This nation will stand because of the constant covenant of Your Word. That even, though many and we have gone astray from you, we have returned to You, and you have never departed. Your word is yes, and it is Amen. And Your Word is true. Your covenant is true, and we stand, and we say, let the nation stand not by the power of its own might, but by the power of the constant covenant of our God. That there is a release of the freshness of springtime coming as we come through this storm. And Lord, even with that smell of the strawberries, the strawberries come forth and smell their greatest in the springtime. And I decree that as we come through this fall and even this winter season, that by spring, we will smell the fragrance of the goodness of God in the land of the living and this nation shall find its place aright and steady because of Your goodness, Your grace, Your mercy, Your kindness. And Father, strengthen, strengthen Your people that we may fulfill every purpose and destiny that you have called us for, as we are faithful to the assignment in this hour, to watch, to pray, to declare, to decree, to stand unshakable, immovable, always abounding in Your grace, even in the mightiest of storms that we've ever seen. We say let it be and let your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. In Yeshua's mighty name. Amen.

Clay Nash - All right, Jacquie. Thank you for your insight, but also for that powerful declaration and decree that you brought there. Someone just sent me a message and reminded me - I knew this, but I didn't think about it today. That when Paul and them, I think it's Acts 27, were on the ship, they let down four anchors. And so, I find that find that interesting. I believe God's going to lay open this dream and give us a lot more spiritual understanding. Timothy, my friend prophesy into this dream. I know something has to be stirring in you.

Tim Carscadden - Yes, it is. Thank you, Clay, and how's everybody on tonight? When you said the four anchors, I was thinking the same thing about Paul. And a matter of fact, someone sent me something recently, and you may go check it out, everybody. John Kilpatrick, I guess, recently, within the last month or so did a whole sermon on the four anchors and what they represent in the kingdom and the Church. So, that might be something everybody to dig into. Well, I want to just build and add to what Clay's sharing and what everybody's put out a lot of good meat already tonight. This is another confirming dream of the coming storm, and I'm not belittling, but we've had multiple, multiple words through the prophets and through the prophetic voices, as well as what Clay's getting here, that there is a coming storm, and that the Lord has provided a way to survive it, which is the vessel, the ark of the covenant. Thinking about Noah, there's always a way to ride out a storm that's coming, and it's a choice of what we're going to believe. On top of that, in your dream, God's sending help, the Host of Heaven and the angels are coming. And it's always, everything in the dream is totally pointing toward covenant and that God is purposing to hold onto the covenant and that He's given us a vessel way to ride out the storm. And then also, a way to overcome the coming storm, and to be successful to fulfill God's covenant. And that part is so encouraging.

I want to add that Susan Constant covenant thing that you had -- of course, your wife's name is Susan and so is mine, and one thing I'll say about our wives, they are very constant in what they believe (laughter). Me and Clay married the same woman, just two different bodies, I think. They are very strong willed and very clear in what they believe, and I think that's a picture. But, also, Susan comes from the word Shushan, which is the Esther story, which is very important because God was saving a people through that story in Esther. And I think God is providing a vessel here to save the remnant, to save the Ekklesia in America. God's not going to let this fail, and the ultimate thing is we are going to win.

The last thing on the strawberries, which is really interesting. I found it, it's in the Message Bible, but it's in Psalms 19, verse 10: . It says, "God's Word is better than a diamond, better than a diamond set between emeralds. You'll like it better than strawberries in spring, better than red, ripe strawberries."

And I think that the picture here is His Word, covenant, it's a diamond between emeralds. It's a promise that God has brought, and I think what the dream is clearly saying is that God is offering us an opportunity for covenant in what He's promised over our nation. I had a dream a couple months ago. I saw a great tidal wave, very similar to this dream, very similar. And, I thought we were going to get wiped out in the dream, and then all of a sudden, I knew that God was going to provide a way for the Ekklesia to ride it out, and we rode it out in this dream. It was tied to the economy, somewhat, of the world, but in the end, it became a harvest tool, and there began to be a great harvest from the storm. And I actually did see in my dream it finally calmed down, and there was a peace in the harvest. People were shipwrecked everywhere. They were floating on pieces of wood, much like what Paul went through where he said, "Hold onto the wood, and we're going to make it." And I think that's why, the dream, I mean the story of Paul really connects with this. So I encourage everybody, "Eat on this." I'm sure Clay will make a way for you to read it. I think you need to read it and keep digging into it because I think there is a lot more to this dream than we're talking about tonight. I want to just pray and prophesy into that, that we will overcome. That's what I got out of it. We will overcome. The Ekklesia, those who are hungering, those who are seeking the face of God. That Lord, you're going to send Your prophetic voices; You're going to send Your messengers. Your angels, Lord, are they not ministering spirits, You said? I thank You, Lord, for the ministering spirits that are being sent to the Ekklesia in this hour. And Father, covenant overwhelms crisis. And, Lord, I just decree that tonight that Your covenant with Your nation, America, and with Your people will trump any crisis. And, Father, You're going to use crisis to turn into a harvest, and I thank You, Lord, that Your promises are "Yes" and "Amen" over this. We thank You, Father, that You have a constant promise. Your covenant does not waver. It's the same yesterday, today and forever, and we call and we decree Your covenant and Your promises over us as a people and over us as a nation, Father. I bless, Lord, Your people that will stay in the boat and ride this thing out with the help of heaven. And, Lord, we will overcome, and we will see this promise come to pass. I make that decree tonight in the Name of Jesus. Amen and amen. Thank you, Clay.

Clay Nash - Alright. Thank you, Timothy. Yes, the dream itself will be put upon the website tomorrow morning. Already got that in the works, and if there's somebody out there that wants to contact Dawn at claynash.org and transcribe tonight's call, that would really be a blessing. We have a big meeting here in North Arkansas, a prophetic weekend encounter coming up this week. Dawn's very busy, but if you would email her and let her know you're going to transcribe it, we'll place the transcription of tonight's call on the website as well. Lot of great insight. I had a conversation earlier this week or maybe it was last week – I can't remember – with Brother Jim Hodges, who's going to be on the call later. I told him we've got to step into debriefing prophetic words, that's the word I'm using. Debriefing them and dreams in a greater manner so that we can become effective. I just went blank on the guy's name, but I think Peter Drucker said that "efficiency is doing things right, but effectiveness is doing right things." And I think we've got to break these down. Anne Tate, good to have you back from Nigeria and wherever else you went. What's in your heart?

Anne Tate - Well, Clay, I was looking at the dream, and before I went to Nigeria, Chuck released this word to send us out and said that Nigeria in the most dangerous crossroads they had ever been in, and that for us to keep at the forefront the crossroads. And he [Chuck] said that He was intently watching them until the twelfth; He had His eyes intently focused on them until September the twelfth. And so, as we worked with that, what we found, every gate and every door we went through, every crossroad that we went through, we were resisted. Now, we were not overcome, and we continued, but it's that kind. And, of course, in 2 Kings 18, Elijah says, "How long will you halt between two decisions? If God be God, serve Him." And that is what many people still are, is halted between two decisions. And this dream talks about those who are in the same place that we were in: we were righteous, we knew we'd been sent, we knew that the Lord has said for us to go, and on the other hand, He'd told us that we would have great impact. And so, we just had to hold on to the word that had been prophesied and that the Lord had spoken to many about going because I vacillated for a while about going, but we have to hang on to that word, that sending word, like you stepped aside to find what your part in it was, and if the Lord would give you more clarity on it. And, so those angels' names, Salt and Light, and the one with the red glow around it, I believe the one with the red glow was blood of our covenant because there has been in the last year great return to what the covenant means for us. And a lot of people, in the process of the hardships that we've had, in the past two and a half years or three years, they have started to evaluate and draw closer with greater commitment into covenant. And so, I believe that those names, it's like the Justice Angel, and the Angel of Revival who finishes things. Those names have to do with their function. And so, if the Angel of Salt and Light is with us that means we still are carrying salt or light, salt and light, and to be on the ship, Robert Hunt, the name of that ship means that, we're still on our way to fulfillment of the original purposes. That is very good news for us to rejoice in, that we are still one with the purpose that America was created for. We're in agreement with God. I rejoice in that.

And, Paul's boat that had four anchors speaks of the apostolic, and that it was an anchor enough to anchor Paul and get him through every hardship that he went through, every crossroad, every door that needed to open. He was able to work and go through that, so that's again, that's great encouragement for all of us. And, I believe that the Lord is saying, He's encouraging us because we know if you know that a tidal wave is coming even though you are currently in topping water, in storm situations, and to know that a tidal wave is coming toward you, we're not at the worst of it yet, but the Lord is telling us that He's equipping us to go through, not to turn back or to be defeated. He is equipping us to keep moving forward, toward, and through whatever is before us.

And so, last Sunday, when I came back from Nigeria, and I was at church, we had a lot of things we were prophesying, a lot of things was going on, and I made a gift. I sowed a seed in addition to what I was giving to go beyond. It was my faith that I could see, that I could hear, that I could break through and go beyond. And I think that tonight would be a good time to sow a seed, all of us, into this prayer thing that we're doing to go beyond. So, I would like everybody to have the opportunity to sow a seed into that tonight to send a check to send a check – Clay, you'll have to explain how to do that, but I believe strongly in that: that if you sow a seed into it, we're aligned to God's purposes; there's a lot of good news here, and we want to move forward. So, I invite them. I have already seen results from the seed that I've sown. I would encourage everybody to sow a seed into this, and into this dream, that we're going beyond because the ship is made to sail not to stand still.

So, Lord, tonight, I thank You for this dream. I thank You for the interpretation, the portion that everybody had in this. I know that it will all come together, and it will flow, but it is good news. And, Lord, we thank You for the good news. Sometimes in the heat of what we're doing and what we're working with, it is great encouragement to hear from the Lord, "You're on track, you're still moving, you're at one with My original purposes." Kingdom will come, harvest will come, and America shall be saved. In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Clay Nash - Alright, Anne. Thank you for this. Let me just say this. I witness with what Anne is saying. If you want to sow, you can go to the website, claynash.org, but if you do sow, on the line item there, designate it toward Josiah Company. You know we've got the next one coming up November 17th, 18th there at Glory of Zion; you can sow it into that. I'm already working for a location in Pennsylvania. I really want to do one next year in D.C. I don't know what this, what's coming exactly, I don't know how much, how difficult it might be to hold one in D.C. But if God wants it there, we can get it done. So, if you do feel a weight and a wind, as I do, on what Anne is saying, you can do that, and we're going to designate all of that into the Josiah Company Movement. And, that will be a blessing. Brother Jim Hodges, what's in your heart, sir?

Jim Hodges - Thank you, Apostle Clay. You know, we experience so often on these calls spiritual breakthrough and download of revelation, but boy, tonight, I've been writing feverishly and just gleaning and receiving from everyone that shared such wisdom and insights. I'm going to have to debrief on this – so glad these calls are recorded. Let me go back in this and kind of pick up where Regina started. The first thing that impressed me about the dream was Ekklesia was on the upper deck. I felt like that was not only a testimony that the Ekklesia, as it were, a revelation is advancing really in the earth but especially for the need for our nation to be all it can be in the Lord. Stepping back into our Founder's visions and principles, based on truth, of course, but I felt like that the Ekklesia is simply being recognized by the Lord as having favor that's increasing. I believe you're kind of up high, you're getting a better perspective on what's happening. And, in scriptures, you know, to ascend or elevate, as it were, to a higher place speaks of increased authority. And so, to me, that's where I started. And I didn't hardly finish up the first reading, I read it. You know, I pretty much don't know all the dreams Apostle Clay's had, but this one has to be the longest. Okay, moving right along. But I read it several times and meditated in the time I had on it. But what I wanted to say, I consider Acts 27 –Apostle Paul before brought that up – the analogy is so powerful here because, as you know, Paul is on way to Rome, and the government is financing his Mediterranean Sea cruise. You know he's arrested and read his rights in Caesarea before some, get this, Festus and so on, but he's appealed as a Roman citizen to stand before Caesar. So this to me, among other things, has to be about the Ekklesia engaging on a high level, if you will, the powers that be, the civil governments of the earth. If you will, the empires pictured by beasts in Revelation and in Daniel. And to me, this is all about Paul getting to Rome, and it was so important in God's purpose because when the angel, you know, stood beside Paul on the ship and said basically, "You're all going to make it," he was able to put courage on all those that were on that ship. They were in the Adriatic Sea, the storm had come up, and you pretty much know what happened from there. But that was important to realize that this wasn't just something, another journey for Paul, a missionary journey number five or six or seven. This was the ultimate journey: he's got to get to Rome. Why? Because we learn later in scripture that there were those of Caesar's household that came to faith in Christ, and that was huge. So, the journey's full of jeopardy. Right after the storm, then they come to Malta, and there Paul's got a snake, he's got to shake off some snakes. You know the story there. That's a good chapter if you don't teach on how to handle snakes, by the way. That was free, no extra charge. But then the real thing happens, to me, when it's all about the storm that is trying to prevent Paul from getting to Rome, and as Apostle Tim said, I agree totally, that the storm is about what we're in now, and we're not going to perish because we had an angel of God. We've got angels, right? Didn't appear to Paul, but many appeared to Tim Sheets. Amen. He wrote books on it. So, the angels are engaging with us on this journey to keep us safe and to get us to our destination for kingdom purposes. So, a whole new level has come for Ekklesia to engage the empire governments, the globalistic governments, the Marxist governments, and even every day. There's just come on a level of boldness about addressing what's actually there, among those, to quote the song, "Rich Men North of Richmond," who are jeopardizing a nation, its destiny, its finances, and all the rest of it. So, I'm excited as we engage civil government for our nation, it's going to get stormier. The storms are not going to get easier, and this is probably, even though we're a year out from the elections next year, the storm already and the pressure is building in the atmosphere. My God, we had an earthquake in northern Georgia. Come on, Jacquie. I called our pastor the other day and said, "Are you shaken, or very shaken?" And she said, "Well, we're fine." And I said, "Well, don't go to California, if you didn't like that." So, we're in a time of shaking and storms, and it's getting worse before it gets better. We hear this. The good news is, thank you, the apostles are on the ship; the Ekklesia has perspective, has authority, and we are going to effectively accomplish our mission to take on every empire, every globalistic government. You know this. Pharaoh and Caesar, they represent beastly government; they're antichrist be they here or Latin America or wherever they are, and they have to come down. Thank you, in the Name of Yeshua, who is the Author and the Captain of our salvation, the book of Hebrews tells us. So, we declare and decree tonight that we receive this encouragement, we're enfolded with fresh vision, understanding and we've got a level that we've come into, that where we started out, we probably never would've dreamed, but now here we are, engaging at the highest levels possible the antichrist empire governments of the world.

And the footnote: Caesar there was Nero at the time. And Nero, he is the 666. Do your Roman numeral thing, you can go to the Hebrew, all the rest of it, 616. But 666 is who he is. He's the antichrist there in the book of Revelation. That antichrist spirit today is being pushed by those who's trying to eliminate us in a storm that will first bring fear and then destruction, but that's not happening. This ship is floating. This ship and this crew will make it to every call and assignment given to us by King Jesus. Amen.

Clay Nash - Alright, Brother Jim. Appreciate that insight and input into this. You know, even Paul said it there in Acts 27. He said, "I perceive there is not only going to be a loss of the ship but of life." Then he stood before them again and he said, "An angel stood before me tonight," and he said, "There will be no loss of life if they stay in the ship." And . . . that's where we are. We've gotta stay in God's ship no matter how rough the seas are. Just add that in. David Hertel, you've got stirred up there in Brandon, Mississippi. What's in your heart?

David Hertel - Yes, I did. I didn't have any idea what that dream meant, and I didn't have time to really dissect it. But as Regina opened up and was sharing, I did get, I got this. I just want to say this. This is very clear to me. We're living in a day when confirmations will be so unusual and clearly God that we will marvel at them as signs and wonders. And, she just said she had looked up strawberry, which I had done, too. So, while I was listening, I looked up strawberry, and as she said they represented perfect goodness, I was writing, "they represent perfect goodness." I mean as she said it, I was writing it. And I thought that's unusual. That's crazy. But then she mentioned Maria Woodworth Etters revival started in 1879, and when she did that I about fell out of my chair because I had a woman in my office today – this has never happened before – and this lady was in there just to talk to me about something. And, she's an older lady. She has lost, she has three children in heaven and one that is still on the earth. I had told her that last week we buried an arrowhead in Meridian, Mississippi in a park where Maria Woodworth Etter had her tent set up for tent meetings in 1914. And, John Kilpatrick, in a meeting there, not long ago, maybe it was, I heard it a couple years ago, he prophesied that God would bring another outpouring through there where she had ministered. And, you can go, actually, I did, went to the Meridian Mississippi Star and quote their articles about her meetings, her tent meetings. And, I am going, this lady said, this lady told me today in my office, Maria Woodworth Etter meant so much to her because she had lost five of her six children. Only one lived to adulthood and got married, and she would have visions of them in heaven, and she also had visions of people lost and suffering in hell and knew that God had called her. And in fact, she said that she heard the voice of Jesus calling me to go out into the highways and the hedges and gather in the lost sheep. Well, Lord, if I do that then I want to be baptized with the same apostolic power that you gave the disciples. And she said it felt like liquid fire went through her body and that angels were all around her. So, she's called the "Grandmother of the Pentecostal Movement". She was already functioning in a Pentecostal two decades before the Pentecostal Movement, per se, was born in 1906. And so, I'm talking to this lady in my office about this. I hadn't even studied this woman, but she was filling me in on the details. Regina mentions her tonight. And her ministry started in 1879 when she heard the voice of Jesus. Just so, this is 144 years back from today, as Regina said, but in 1918, at the age of 74, she planted a church in Indianapolis that was started with a 500-seat tabernacle that even today it continues, known as Lakeview Church. But I want to quote the newspaper article, what it said, just one quote that I had time to read. It said, "Mrs. Etter (and I think this is real important for us, for the day we're in) Mrs. Etter is one of the most level-headed, matter of fact, discreet, and courageous women. Nothing is said or done by her that reflects unfavorably on other denominations or upon physicians." And so I thought, that's to come through down the years that she ministered that way, that's pretty significant. But anyway, I want to read a scripture and then just declare. Let this scripture even be a declaration that this stirred up. Psalms 5:11 and 12 says, says that, "All those rejoice who put our trust in you, Lord, let them ever shout for joy because you defend them. Let those also who love your Name be joyful in you for you oh Lord will bless the righteous with favor. You will surround him as with a shield."

And so we just declare, that the favor of God will shield those who trust in God. And we thank You, Lord, that favor will sometimes be like a sign and a wonder. We thank You, Lord, that Your confirmations for the directives, the directions, the things that heaven is initiating will be like signs and wonders. They'll be clear, they'll be yet needed to be picked up by the Spirit, and we thank You, Lord, that You're doing it, and we get to participate and the privilege of partnering with heaven in it. In Jesus' Name, we declare America will be saved because of it. Amen.

Clay Nash - Alright, David. What a call tonight. Man – a lot come out. As I said, the dream will be put up tomorrow morning, and we'll start working. If someone out there that has helped us in transcription before, contact Dawn, and let her know you're going to transcribe tonight's call. I want to get it sent out to some other leaders. We'll be here tomorrow at 2:22 ET, and we are going to continue to press in and make the declarations and decrees that God stirs up in our hearts. Be blessed. Focus on what's ahead. Keep your stand and your stance fully, not just positioned, but postured in God. And, we're about to see a reset of kingdom proportion that's going to the church, reset this nation. It's going to be intense, but it's also going to be, have the hand of God on it from the start to the finish. And we're going to see great things that will become bitter in our belly, according to a dream, but then will be sweet in our eyes. God bless you all.

Blessings everyone.
