

Word given to Clay Nash on Friday morning when he woke up.
He shared it Friday, 05/13/22.

The Lord said, "The WIN of the war will begin Monday."

"The intensity of the battle many are not prepared for."

(After Clay shared this Word w/ us, he began to pray as he was praying this Word came forth.)

There's a new cadence coming Monday. And the cadence that comes Monday will not just be how we march, but it's going to be the sound of the words that come from our lips, says the Lord.

For the sound that is coming Monday, says the Lord will be heard throughout the earth. Watch and see.

Be not squirmish, says the Lord, for blood shall be shed. But I will redeem the shed blood. For blood has been being shed, says the Lord, but we've just not been there to witness it. But the Lord said watch and see as this new cadence begins to bring a vibration across the nation. And those who that have chosen to remain asleep and those who want to hide their heads in the sand and say it's not my battle, you're too governmental, watch and see as this vibration that is coming is going to shake them into being awake, alert, discerning and ready to pick up the Sword of the Spirit and go to war.

For I am about to increase My Army, says the Lord. For every man there is a degree that he must be pushed back into the corner to finally fight.

But even though they were seen as weak, shall now be seen as strong. As the battle will intensify beginning Monday, says the Lord.
