Clay Nash: [00:00:04] Well, good evening. It's 9 p.m. Eastern Time and we're on our Tuesday night call. And we are certainly planning to decree and declare into some of our Senate races tonight as what we emailed out today, and I'm sure we'll be doing that some, but just feel like we need to, besides those Senate races in Nevada, Arizona and New Hampshire, we need to pray over this tragedy there in Texas. You know, we experience this. They're heartbreaking. I cannot even imagine the heartbreak that families are feeling and questions that are not even answered as of yet, at least by the latest news I've heard. And so, we will be praying into this tonight. And with it. I want to preference the call. I mention this from time to time, but several years ago the Lord just gave me some insight and revelation over four horns of darkness or power over the nation. And they are there in Ezekiel and one of them is false prophets or false ministers. That's not just talking about in the church. That can be anyone trying to be something that God's not called them. Also unclean priests--that's sin in the house of God. And I'm thankful for the Archbishop, which is there in California, which is trying-- is holding Pelosi to accountability. And I hope that the one in DC will do the same. Also, it speaks about Princes of Darkness and that's speaking about illegitimate authority. All authority is influence, but not all influences is authority. We have teachers, school teachers, we have other people that's trying to influence our young people, but yet they have no authority because they really don't take responsibility for the consequences. And then last and the one I want us to focus on tonight is that of selfish people. This crime today there in Texas, this taking of innocent lives is a very, very selfish, selfish-- yes, we can talk about the demonic. We can talk about sickness. I'm sure the liberals will rail to try to take away Second Amendment rights. All of this can be, but it's a very selfish thing. Tragic what happened there in Texas with the relative and the loss of her life, but then to go on and to do what has been taken. And so we're going to be speaking into this tonight and praying into it and declaring. And Tom, you're there in Texas and you've even got a guest I'm going to let you introduce. I'm going to try to give any information, but Tom would just open us in prayer. I know everyone's heart is grieving over this. I just can't imagine what parents, brothers and sisters and grandparents and possibly even great great grandparents. I know I've lost a 12 year old granddaughter and I know the heartache that it brought to Susan and I and the struggle it brought to our daughter in that loss. So, I just can't imagine. So we want to lift these families up. We want to pray against this darkness. We want to break this thing down. And we certainly need some revelation and spiritual understanding in the manner of becoming proactive against these types of tragic, demonic crimes that are always taken out on the innocent. So, Tom, I'm going to turn it over to you and I'll let you run with it. Just pray and then share what's in your heart.

Tom Schlueter: [00:04:24] Amen. Thank you, Clay. Just want to check real quick. Emma, are you on the call yet? I've been texting her and making sure she gets on the call.

Clay Nash: [00:04:36] Go ahead.

Tom Schlueter: [00:04:37] I'm going to keep on watching on that. If she can't, they'll be fine. Well, we'll still get this covered. Father, we come into your presence tonight, and we thank you, Lord, that you are lifting up your ecclesia in this hour to manifest the authority and the strength of life that is perpetrating, that is coming against death, perpetrating into our existence. We are saying no to death tonight. I agree with you, Clay, that this is dealing with a selfish nature. But I also believe that this is very keyly tied to the upcoming overturning of death for this nation. And it's a last gasp effort by the enemy to say, "you just be careful because I'm going to still kill and steal and destroy." And we are saying, no, that is not going to happen. We are going to release life tonight into Uvalde. We're going to release life into the nation. We're going to release life and blessing over these parents, over brothers and sisters, over these teachers, over this small community that has been devastated by this horrific and horrible act of killing. We say tonight, Dear Lord, would you guide our prayers? Would you strengthen us and give us even further resolve to speak life, to speak life, to speak life in the midst of death, in Jesus name. Amen. I'm just going to be talking, and Emma, if you do come on Just make sure you mute star six, unmute star six. And then we'll just have our input. The reason I've asked Emma. Emma is going to be one of our newest council members here on our TXAPN Council, and she actually lives in Uvalde. Uvalde is one of the key locations in our state. Matter of fact, we've discovered many times when Chuck Pierce and others have talked about thrones of iniquity in our state. Uvalde is one of those, and there has been a lot of prayer that has been poured into this city. It's got a demonic structure on top of an old theater that is in the town square. It's just, it's amazing, just in-your-face, diabolical and demonic structure that is just-- I can't say it any other way. It just comes face to face with you. But we have been dealing with that and the teams have been dealing with this for years. What's interesting about Uvalde is that, I believe it's the only place in the nation--Now, I'm not talking about interstates, but I'm talking about U.S. highways. It's the only place in the nation where two U.S. highways cross that go all the way east to west and all the way north to south, from Mexico to Canada on Highway 83 and from California to the East Coast on Highway 90, it crosses there at Uvalde. We've many times have felt that this is a crossroads of the nation. It is a crossroads of where the Lord wants to release his blessing. And it has been held down by demonic structures. Emma has been a very powerful force as well as some of the other intercessors in that region in dealing with these issues. And there have been many decrees regarding life in this. But again, as I said, I truly believe that we are dealing with an in-your-face move by Satan himself saying "you're going to see life released through Roe v Wade, but I am still the prince of death, and I'm going to release death in these key spots of iniquity." And we're just saying NO tonight. I believe it's extremely important that Clay mentioned that we would deal with this as a nation tonight because, yes, it's a crossroads in the southern part, central, south central part of Texas. But at the same time, it is affecting the whole nation because the highways that go from there all the way throughout the nation. Now, let me check again here. Emma, are you on the call? She has the number and everything else. I'm not sure what's keeping her from not getting on, clay. I'm going to keep on trying. I'm gonna say a prayer here, Clay, and then just going to keep on trying to contact her and if she gets on...

Clay Nash: [00:09:28] Okay. Yeah, go ahead. We can have Ken Malone follow you. And then if you and her talk by phone or text and I would certainly be honored if she would come home. Being boots on the ground there, I think it would be very important.

Tom Schlueter: [00:09:43] And I think you all have seen the latest update. It's now 18 kids and three adults, one of those being a teacher that has been killed. And this is just, this is an atrocious, atrocious act. Very satanic in all of its nature. So, Lord, we come together tonight as the Ekklesia. not just one state, but many states. not just a few people, but hundreds, if not thousands of people focusing, Dear lord, all of our attention on this one small crossroads town in south central Texas. And we say, dear Lord, that the enemy will not have the end of the day. That this death that has taken place in this place in Uvalde, will be the very seeds of martyrdom that are going to be planted for the bringing forth of revival. LORD, There have been many words given over the state of Texas, including those by Chuck Pierce and others and Cindy Jacobs, that Lord, there's going to be major revivals and awakenings breaking forth in the small communities of the state and of the nation. We believe with all of our heart Uvalde is one of those. And so we are claiming tonight, dear Lord, that what the enemy has proposed for evil and for death is going to bring forth life. That there will be revivals in this elementary school, there will be revivals in the churches of Uvalde. There will be a gathering together of the people, and there will be a kneeling down together and dedicating their town, their city to the Lord, saying, we will no longer allow death to reign over this city. We are calling on the Lord of Life to bring forth His life and all the demonic structures, all the principalities, everything that has been manifesting for decades, if not centuries, in this small town, your days are now numbered and you are coming down. You are being dismantled by the King of kings and the Lord of Lords and by his grassroots army, the ecclesia. We decree life over Uvalde. We decree healing over Uvalde. We decree comfort and peace to be given to Uvalde tonight, in Jesus name, Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:12:10] Amen. Do you know if Emma has come on, Tom?

Tom Schlueter: [00:12:14] Well, she should be on our line. But I'm going to get off for a second. I'm going to try to call her here.

Clay Nash: [00:12:19] Okay. All right. Ken Malone, Good to have you on with us tonight. What's in your heart, my friend?

Ken Malone: [00:12:25] Thank you, Clay. It's good to be on. And I like, much like Tom and others who have spoke tonight yourself, My heart is broken and goes out to the people there in Uvalde. And I'm just asking God to send his comforter there. He promised that we would have a comforter. And so I believe that God is going to bring that comfort to that town, to every inhabitant. Those who have lost loved ones. I believe that we're going to see a revival come out of that place as well. But where sin does abound, the word of God says grace does much more abound. So father, over this city and over Texas tonight we cry, grace, Grace, Grace unto the state of Texas, unto Uvalde, in Jesus name. Father, we decree that Your Grace will cover that city. Your Grace will cover every person, father that has lost loved ones. Every person traumatized, Father, we just pray the grace of God to cover and to heal. We ask God that Jehovah Rapha move into that town and begin healing every wounded heart, every wounded soul and God that your hand, Lord, would be upon that city in a major, major way. Lord, begin healing our nation. Father. You said, Lord, if we came together and pray and sought your face and turn from our wicked ways that you would hear from heaven and that you would forgive our sin and heal our land. God, we ask you tonight God to Forgive us. Father, forgive me, but forgive us as a nation, Lord, for the sins and atrocities we've committed through the years. Lord, I ask you God to begin turning our nation into a nation that is made whole. Heal our land, Father. Heal our nation, in Jesus name. Stretch forth your hands, God, and do mighty works, Lord, as you did in the Book of Acts. All through Texas, Uvalde, we just decree that the works of the Lord are coming to you in a powerful way, in the Name of Jesus. And Lord, rather than division, We ask you, God, to bring unity and healing to our nation. bring unity and healing to this nation, in Jesus name. And Father, tonight, we thank you, Lord, for doing that. We thank you, God, that you're the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. And we bow our knee to you tonight in the name of Yeshua. Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:15:08] Amen. Thank you, Ken. Want to remind everyone that coming up on June the 5th, Sunday night at 5:55 Central Time. 5:55 Central Time, I'm going to do a live stream on my YouTube channel. I am going to be speaking about abortion, but I'm also going to be speaking about some strategy of how we can be proactive as Roe versus Wade is turned around, at least in many states. We need to have some strategy about adoption and some other things. I'm going to be releasing that night on the livestream on the YouTube channel Clay Nash Ministries, a video that we've had made. Also, we'll be having Dr. Dwain Miller out of Little Rock, Arkansas, but also Timothy Carscadden out of Shreveport. They are going to join me that night. And I'm going to have some information about a ministry that is already working and helping couples that cannot fully afford to adopt. The process is so expensive to raise money. just heard a tremendous testimony from their pastor about what they are doing and what has been done. And we'll be releasing this information a week from this coming Sunday night. June the 5th. That'll be at 5:55. It will be a live stream on Clay Nash Ministries YouTube channel. So mark that on your calendar. Join with us. You might say why 5:55? Why these odd numbers? 2-2-2 ? well 555 is grace, grace, grace. And we need a lot of grace not just in the overturning of Roe versus Wade, but to become proactive for the moment of time that we're in. Becca Greenwood, so good to have you on. I know you've been very busy, but what's in your heart tonight?

Becca Greenwood: [00:17:19] Yeah. Thank you, Clay. So good to be back with you guys. And just, you know, like all that you have said and with this spirit of death that has been unleashed and Tom and Ken have prayed, just really heartbroken over the loss of lives of these eighteen children; these babies, right? In Uvalde, Texas. And so, really wanting to pray about this trauma and this spirit of death and releasing comfort as well. But thank you for having me on. I just want to say that. And It's really good to be back with you guys. So, Lord, right now we do, we lift up all that has occurred today in Uvalde, Texas. And as Tom was sharing earlier about this death and as an apostolic father and leader in that state, that he has put death on notice and says it is coming to an end. And this afternoon, as I have been praying, Lord, right now, we come together in agreement as the Ekklesia that this hook of trauma that is hooked into Uvalde, Texas because of that demonic altar. We say that this hook of trauma is being unhooked now from Uvalde, Texas, across this nation. Where death has come in, in the middle, in the time of Roe v Wade being overturned. And, Lord, we say that any and all sacrifice that has happened to the next generation, to these babies, to this younger generation, this death sacrifice today, that that bloodshed, the power of that bloodshed would be broken, now, in Jesus name. We say that fear will not grip this nation. Lord, we speak that any divide that this will try to bring in to be politicized. Lord, right now we take authority over that now, in Jesus name. We say selfishness will be bound now in Jesus' name, even among government leaders. I did listen briefly to Biden tonight and had to turn him off because he began doing that very quickly. And at first he was giving this heartfelt, you know, thing as a father who has lost his child, but then he just shifted instantly. And so, Lord, we take authority over that right now in our nation. And Lord, right now, we bind that division, we bind that agenda for politicians to move forward on their own agendas during this time. Lord, right now we speak and release your healing to this nation. We speak and release your comfort. It's says in second Corinthians 1, starting in verse 3: all praises belong to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. For He is the Father of tender mercy and the God of endless comfort. Lord, right now we speak and release your comfort to every parent, to all families right now, in Uvalde, Texas. To all families who has lost a child and a grandchild and niece and nephew. Lord, right now we speak your comfort, your supernatural grace and comfort. Lord, we speak in agreement with what Tom was saying that revival will come to Uvalde, Texas. We speak where, even in the history of what Tom was sharing, where there has been that demonic altar of death and that it is put on notice. we prophesy right now. We declare that revival life will come to Uvalde, Texas, and that Crossroad place across our nation. And Lord, we speak comfort to the teachers, comfort to Uvalde, Texas. Lord, we speak that they will feel Your Grace hovering over them and around them and your supernatural comfort tonight and together in agreement. As I started, we unhook that trauma that has come to Uvalde, Texas and we say you will not empower the death structure over abortion and this younger generation in our nation in Jesus name. Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:22:16] Thank you, Becca. We certainly stand in agreement. And Father, we just release great grace, great grace, great grace over everyone affected by this. Father, even those that are not connected to this town in Texas, but have fear of their children being hurt or even murdered, father, give them great grace right now. Tom, I think Emma's been able to join us. Will you introduce her and just release her to share what's in her heart?

Tom Schlueter: [00:22:50] Yeah, I certainly will. I want to welcome as a guest tonight, Emma Trimble. I've known Emma for many years. She lives there in New Valley. She is very, a very authentic and powerful intercessor. She has great contacts with government there in the city and also in Austin. She has been a tremendous asset. She's going to be one of our newest council members with our network. That probably is a surprise to her. But anyway, I just, I want her to give an opportunity just to share what's going on in New Valley right now. She counsels people a lot. And so I know that she's probably picking up very strongly what is going on in the atmosphere. So. Emma, do you want to just take some time and share what's on your heart? What's going on in Uvalde tonight?

Emma Trimble: [00:23:45] Yeah. Yeah. Thank you, Tom. Thank you, everyone. I'm just going to just go straight to it and tell you that there is spiritual warfare in the heavenlies right now. And it's even manifesting through, you know, the atmosphere, the clouds, the, I mean, you can just sense the demonic warfare in the heavenly with the-- it's been somewhat overcast and it's been... Bottom line, there is warfare in the heavenlies. Secondly, I will ask you as I pray, of course, you'll be in agreement. We're going to declare some things over this and it is going to be done in this city. There has been a line that was drawn, some decisions and some choices that were made by leadership. No names will be presented. But it opens the door for the enemy to come in. And I believe that. I know up close and personal where this door, I believe, opens. And no one in this city would ever suspect it, nor believe it. And I've been waiting to hear from the Lord on how to address this. And I'm still waiting to hear how to address it in the natural. We all know how to address it in the spirit. But there is even in the middle of this situation, there is religion that is trying to erect or to fortify the dividing wall here in this city with the religious leaders. To some degree. Um. I'll just tell you, they don't like women pastors. And God put me here. And it's been a battle. And, yes, I am very connected to city leadership. So God is having his way in this. It looks like Billy Graham Ministries may actually be using our church as the center, the headquarter center to minister, to the first responders, to all the police officers and deputies, because they're going to bring in all these counselors. Afte, and I won't give you all the details, but I will tell you that The will of the Lord shall be done here. The Spirit of the Lord will have the upper hand here. I declare in the name of Yeshua, the son of the living God. Satan and his demons will not prevail here. The Body of Christ. The Church of the Living God will be in charge. The government will be upon his shoulders, in the name of Jesus. The families that are so wounded and broken in this city will come to the light of Jesus. Father, I ask, may your Holy Spirit comfort these individuals in the way that only you can. Thank you, Father, for the wisdom and the insight that all of these leaders will walk in. They need your comfort, God. They need to be fortified, father. They need to be strengthened, Lord. And Father, I just speak to truth and we usher in truth into this city, in the name of Yeshua, the truth of the living God will prevail here. Truth will prevail and arise.

Clay Nash: [00:28:36] Amen. Amen. Emma, Thank you very much.

Tom Schlueter: [00:28:41] Amen. Yes. The last thing just very quickly, again, because it just won't leave me and Emma knows this very well. right there at the crossroads of those two highways is where this opera house that has the dragon on the top of it is located. And that's that two highways, one goes all the way east west. The other one goes all the way north, south. So it is such a connecting spot for the nation. It's just one of those portals that connects. And we just secure that tonight. I want to decree as one who-- and all of us have the authority of the keys, but we just say tonight we are locking that door tonight to the enemy and we are opening up that portal, that connecting between these two highways to the king of glory. Let the King of glory come down these highways. In Jesus name. In Jesus Name. Thank you again, Emma. Thank you again.

Emma Trimble: [00:29:40] Yea I--

Clay Nash: [00:29:41] And Father, we just pray over Emma's leadership, along with the rest of the Ekklesia there in this town. A crossroads, a place of destiny, a place of purpose. And we just declare, let the Ekklesia, not only that is already risen, let them not only stand tall in their hearts of grace and in their authority, but father, let there be a release that's going to bring more than just unifying around a tragedy. But let this city come together as one man even as Israel did in the book of Ezra. So Father, we just release Great Grace, but we also release great wisdom, spiritual understanding and even revelation. Father, where the city leaders have no answers, let the Ekklesia be called upon and recognize that they have heard from heaven and they are able to speak on behalf of the King of Kings and the Lord of the Lords. Thank you, Lord. Pour out Your spirit of comfort upon every person across this nation who's been affected by this and any way. We thank you for that. In Yeshu's name, Amen and Amen. David there in Brandon, Mississippi, what's in your heart?

David Hertle: [00:31:18] Yes, sir. I shared this on a prayer call, I believe it was yesterday morning, but feel I need to share it again that Sunday morning before the service as I was being prayed over, I had a mental vision of a black cloud of deep darkness over what I knew was generic cities, and the cloud was rupturing blood. And I thought of the verses in Matthew four verse 15 through 17 said, "Land of the Zeppelin and land of the Massive Pele, the way of the Sea Beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles. The people living in darkness have seen a great light on those living in the land of the shadow of death. A light has dawned". And then it says-- This is what's so powerful, "from that time on, Jesus began to preach, 'Repent for the kingdom of Heaven has come near.' So the Kingdom of Heaven is coming near tonight in this situation, through the Ekklesia and through our standing on the Word of God, and through our contending for victory over the Spirit of death in every method and form that it uses. So, I heard the superintendent just on the news, just the superintendent and several other community leaders said, "we need your prayers to get through this." They weren't just saying something. I could tell their hearts were wrenched when they made that request. And so we begin with just: Our father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on Earth as it is in heaven in this situation. We lift up this community, Oh Lord, especially the families of the loved ones and the friends of the victims. And we lift them up to you, Father God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort. And we ask you Oh Lord, to comfort them in this tribulation and loss of supernatural peace and comfort into their hearts that has no explanation except Jesus Christ and carry them, Lord, as they must carry on in life through this extreme tragedy and Lord, we just mourn with them. We groan with them, we ache with them. Those of us who have children and grandchildren can't even-- won't even let our imaginations go there. So, Lord, we thank you that you're able to reach in and pour in the wine and the oil and bring healing to the wounds. And we take authority over the spirit of death and abortion and mass murder. And all the premature death methods of the devil. According to John 10:10 it only come to steal, kill, and destroy. And we bind him and them in Jesus name. And all the senseless killings and mass murders we bind in the name of Jesus from occurring. the human agents that He brings under his possession and torment and delusion in order to use them as a tool. We bind them in the name of Jesus. Let them be discovered. Let them be found out. Let there be help brought to them, Lord. But let them be kept from bringing destruction and death. And we repent of the sin of abortion. We lean on your mercy, Lord, that's found in the shed blood of Jesus Christ and we plead that the blood of the sinless LAMB of God would plead His blood over our nation from the smallest children, schools, supermarkets and cities to the largest metropolises across our land. Lord Jesus, shine in this darkness. Let your kingdom shine in this darkness and deliver us from the rampages of the spirit of death. Give wise answers and solutions to those with the power to protect, Lord God. and not foolishness. Deliver us from the foolishness that makes vulnerable places even more vulnerable and more susceptible to attack by deluded souls. Lord, in Jesus name we cry out to you, simply help us, Lord in Your mercy, deliver us from the harvest we have sown as a nation. And that we've sown on a wind and we're reaping the whirlwind. But Lord, we look to you and we remember our covenant with you, how you founded us and delivered us time and time again, and shall deliver us again. And we will be able to say, Surely God has risen and has stretched out His strong arm and has saved America again. And we'll give you the glory for it, Lord, in Jesus name, Amen.

Becca Greenwood: [00:35:43] Amen. Thank you, David. Becca, You've got something you need to release. So go ahead, ahead of Pat.

Becca Greenwood: [00:35:51] Yeah, absolutely. Well, Emma, I don't know if you're still on, but if you're listening and I know Tom is, that I um-- while you were speaking, I heard the Lord saying that he has spoken to you very clear things about Uvalde. And He says, and he has spoken to you about your voice and the authority that you carry in the spirit realm, being very key for the breakthrough that is coming to Uvalde. And he says, watch what's going to happen and unfold even in the next 3 to 4 weeks. He said that there will be leaders, pastors, there will be government leaders, there will be law enforcement leaders that are going to seek the wisdom of what the Lord has shown you concerning the spirit realm in Uvalde. And that there will be a remnant that begins to rally together to see the Stronghold defeated in Uvalde and to see God's healing and awakening begin to come. I'm just going to tell you what I'm seeing, but this incident is going to cause a governmental shaking in Uvalde, as well. There are some that have done some things governmentally that has-- and I know you said they were open doors, but I see that there is a shaking that is going to happen governmentally in Uvalde as a result of this. And the three corrupt players will end up being removed and righteousness will be set in place. So what needs to be set in place for the Awakening of Uvaldi will begin to occur. I feel the Lord is saying you will be called on in council government meetings. They're going to call on you to ask what the Lord is showing you. And I believe that's happened in the past. But I see you sitting around a council table meeting with law enforcement and government leaders. So, what God is speaking to you in this time will be ver-- And what he has spoken to you in the days ahead will be very key for the healing and the breakthrough and the victory and awakening that will now come into Uvalde. So, Lord, right now I want to surround Emma, right now, with prayer and intercession. Lord, I thank you for her apostolic prophetic voice that you have raised up for such a time as this. And Lord, I thank you that Your glory become a covering and a hedge and a protection around her. And Lord, we say that there will be-- and I'm just sensing this in the Spirit as well, in that region of Texas, we take authority over a copycat occurrence happening in this region of Texas again because of what happened today. And I take authority over that now in the spirit, right now in San Antonio and the surrounding regions right now. and Lord for Emma, Lord, we speak and release that glory and that canopy and that shield to hover around her for what you have positioned her for in Uvalde, Texas, for such a time as this. Thank you, Lord.

Clay Nash: [00:39:30] Thank you, Becca. Appreciate that. And I'm sure that Emma does. We stand in agreement with that prophetic word, with that declaration and decree. Pat, what's in your heart?

Pat McManus: [00:39:42] Thank you, Clay, for the opportunity. And I'm just going to add on to what Becca was doing. Actually, I wrote that out here, so I'm going to pray it in. But I'm going to read Isaiah 11, first. "And There shall come forth a rod from the stem of Jessy and a branch shall grow out from its roots, and the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him. The spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. So, Father, we thank you that you are raising up a generation that the enemy has tried to take out. But there's going to be an explosion of the generation in that region and territory that Father, there is an empowering that's going to ignite the young and the generations to come into a clear sound of revolution upon the land. That Father, their enemy that tried to take be neutralized and nullified because you're raising up those that will truly restore the glory upon the land and that there will be the true ecclesia arising in that region that will sound the trumpet and neutralize the religious and the compromised and complacent structures and will break the back of religion upon that land and the false structures that have been established and seeing the fulfillment of truth come to past within. That father, that which tries to neutralize and nullify a generation, Father, that generation will rise and take back authority and will walk in power, and we'll see the outcome of your glory upon the land. So, Father, we declare comfort. We declare the spirit of wisdom upon that region. We declare wisdom and understanding upon that region. We declare the Counsel of the Lord upon that region. We declare knowledge to be revealed and Father restore truly, the fear of God upon that land and upon the Nation of the Earth. Father, we thank you that you are igniting, without question, your people in that region. And so, Father, we say let the angelic hosts go forth to restore within and bring life and help and hope to the territory. And Father, we release a breakthrough upon that land that truly will be restored back to the full expression of your glory, power and might so. Father, we thank you for the fear the Lord being restored and the power of your name being seen. We thank you, Father, for in Jesus name. Amen. And Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:42:12] All right. Thank you, my friend, Pat. Timothy, what's in your heart?

Timothy Cascadden: [00:42:20] Thank you, Clay. And to all those that are on online on this call tonight. Thank you for praying with us. You know I...Clay, as we start this prayer as of now, Tom said that there were 18 children that have died and I know there's many dozens others that are injured. So we don't know if that's going to be the final number. But 18 is the number of life in the Hebrew. And I really felt like that contention for the youth of our nation, for the next generation that the enemy wants to take out. And without sounding mystical, I work a lot in Africa. And one of the things you see is, is innocent blood being shed, is building of what they call altars or portals. They try to open it up. We see this in America with BLM, when the death of an African-American, they go to the site and they do water libations and things like this, trying to open up a portal to bring chaos and rioting and darkness into the earth. And so we know that the enemy has a plan here to build an altar of death. So this is what we call a contesting or a contending altar. We have to contend now for life to be on this altar. And, you know, altars are managed by priests, you know, either the priest of darkness or the priest of light. And we are the priests of light. And so, what Emma's doing and Tom's doing down there, they have a responsibility, and we support them as priests to stand at this altar and turn what was meant for evil to good and let the seeds of death here not be an activation of a portal of darkness, but to be an opening for heaven to come and bring life and revival. And they love to come to places where there's intersections of places and portals. So what we saw here, what Tom was saying was the two roads, this is a classic place to bring a spirit of death, because then it has what it just releases things across the nation. And we know this is going to affect the election. We know how far this is going to go. You know, I couldn't even watch a news hardly tonight because they were already, you know, politicizing it. I mean, these young people's bodies are not even grown cold And they were already politicizing what has happened here. And that is the sadness of this. We have grief here because we lost some precious children today and that we should be broken for rather than using it for political gain, which you're already seeing is happening. So I want to cover that in prayer. I do want to pray for the priestly ministry of Uvalde in Texas as they go to this place and this altar and that we repent for what happened. Obviously, Ken, I think, did that earlier. And we ask that the spirit of life come in that place and that these lives would be seeds of revival, that they would be seeds of hope for the future. And so this is a place right now, it's an altar where the priests are praying and crying out for. And we have to oversee this place right now. We have to be overseers, the ecclesia do, so that we will not allow the spirits of darkness and death to come into the earth there and let that be a portal of death. I think Becca prayed a wonderful prayer concerning that as well. So, Father, we thank you for your goodness, Lord, that you can take what was meant for evil and turn it for good. And we, Lord, We ask you, Lord, to bring up the priestly anointing right now that are in that region, and Lord, for Emma and other people like her that will stand at the altar and say, 'no, this will not be an altar of death, this will be an altar of hope.'" And the innocent blood will cry out for repentance, Father. But it will cry out for restitution, for what was done in evil that the Lord will pay back. And Lord, Your Word says that when the enemy is caught, He must pay back seven fold. And so, Lord, for every child that was lost, every adult as well, but every child was lost, we ask for a seven fold return of salvation, revival, power and anointing. Lord for the mantles that were lost today because of death. We pray for then the generation that wear a double mantles to where, Lord, They were carrying something that somebody did not get to finish their work, that Lord, these these young ones, any of them that would be part of the cloud of witnesses. Lord, that their testimony of their purpose, lord, would come forth and become a union message for what we are doing right now. We cover that Lord. And we ask that this altar Lord be covered with your blood. Now we ask you to forgive, Lord, the blood, the shedding of blood here. But Lord, we ask now that your shedding of your blood would speak louder, Lord, than this plan of the enemy to produce a spirit of death in Uvalde and beyond all the way to the crossroads of this nation. And we say and I agree with Becca, that we just break that spirit of a copycat thing, that anything else that would try to do this again. We say that, Lord, we cut that off tonight and we say that more life would come about this. But let this be a unifying event that will cause us to be Americans. That Lord, we, Lord, this...these Americans were lost today, Father, our own people. People of the covenant of this nation were lost today. And Lord, we grieve that. And we ask that, Lord, that you repay Lord the enemy according to what he has done here. And we cover it tonight in the name of Yeshua. Amen and Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:48:16] Amen. Thank you, Timothy. Brother Jim Hodges, would you just close it out in prayer? I think a father's prayer over tonight's call would go a long ways and even, especially from you. So, if you're on the call, would you do that?

Jim Hodges: [00:48:35] Yes, Clay. I'd be honored to. Earlier on as all these outstanding intercessions were rising in the meeting tonight, there was just a strength and I felt one verse just quicken to me that all of us know. But I want to share it. And then I want to pray. I have a prophetic word too. But the verse is in Revelation 3:21, and Jesus, of course, speaking to the church of Laodicea: He who overcomes I will grant to him to sit down with me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with my father on his throne. And the whole thing Clay mentioned about the father's prayer. Of course, we know tonight that there's a throne of the lamb and a throne of God, and the heavenlies. Or there's a throne for the Son, Yeshua, and the throne for the Father, and out of their relationship, which is eternal and perfect we're able to connect in there because the ecclesia are certain of those who have overcome, because they know they are a resurrected and ascended people. And I feel like what's going on in this city of Uvalde tonight is going to be such a release of another level of efficiency for the Ekklesia, realizing that, yes, we are seated with Christ in heavenly places who sit at the fathers right hand, but we're also sharing the throne. We were not just destined for the throne. As Paul Bill Hammer wrote in his book. We Are Sharing the Throne because we are God's Ecclesia. And a prophetic word before I pray tonight is simply this: "The dragon is going to come down in Uvalde. There's going to be a lightning flash or a disintegration, somehow [to] happen. No one will be physically injured at the Opera House because I saw before this event, I'm not saying a simultaneous, but I saw people streaming into Uvalde, not just from their immediate region but beyond it to have a worship service in the opera house and there in the worship the Lord is going to move powerfully. And as it happened years ago in Asia, that Dr. Wagner talked about how one powerful intercessing lady met another and they begin to pray over the fall of idols and the nation where they were serving Jesus and they begin to literally fall. So we send Uvaldi, which is a crossroads, not just for America, north to south, east or west, but from Mexico, so near the border and the is going on there. We say in the name of Jesus, the dragon is coming down. He's been defeated already by the blood of the lamb. There's going to be, actually, as now, thank you, Father, for releasing to your people strength, encouragement, spiritual fiber, the spirit of life and resurrection. And we grieve for those who grieve, but we rejoice with those who are staying true to the task of representing your government in the Earth and the state of Texas. And now, in Uvalde specifically, and the lamb is overcoming hallelujah, not just because of the blood he shed and disarmed principalities and powers, but we who follow the lamb. Wherever he goes, we are overcoming in Jesus name. So, Father, thank you for your comfort, your strength, your peace, restore souls of families and everyone concerned in this tragedy where we say death has struck us, but it will not have the final word of the resurrected Jesus standing up with the revealed Ekklesia will have the final word in all the earth, but right now in Uvalde, Texas, in the Name of Yeshua. Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:52:42] Amen. Thank you, brother Jim. We just end tonight's call. We lift up those three very vulnerable Democrat senators in Nevada, Arizona and New Hampshire. And we declare "you lose". We declare that God's conservative hearts, pro-life hearts, are going to win in these states. we step back into this Senate race and we come in agreement. and we just as Shepna was fired, we serve those that are running under a pro-death agenda, a liberal, socialist, even communist agenda. We serve you notice; you lose. And we say that life wins. We thank you, Lord, that your life, your resurrection life kills death and destroys it. So, Father, we release that over those three states tonight and Father, thank you for touching those there in Texas that their hearts are stripped. They're ripped. They're hurting. Father, I have felt this pain to some degree, and mine and Susan's heart go out to everyone out there that lost a child, a grandchild, or maybe even a great grandchild or a brother or sister or a nephew or a niece. And we just say, father, great grace, mega grace be released there. And we thank your father. Penetrate the governmental leaders' hearts there and turn them towards Yeshua. And Father, let Emma and the others That function as the Ekklesia in the gate of that city, Father, fortified with wisdom, revelation, spiritual understanding and an insight of what heaven is speaking into this. And we declare that the anti-Christ spirit upon those that stand against God will not prevail in any way. And Father, help this be an awakening in the hearts of families that we have at times loved ones who need help And we cannot bury our head in the sand. And we cannot let Pride cause us not to do whatever is necessary to intervene and see our loved ones get help. Let a spirit of courage and let a spirit of boldness sweep across this nation and let families recognize that their loved ones are sick. Let them recognize their loved ones are demonic. But let them have the strength and courage to find the help that is needed. Now, do these things tonight in Yeshua's Name. Amen and Amen. Just want to share with you that we will be transcribing this. We'll get it done as quickly as we can. The recording will be posted tomorrow. There will be a 222 call tomorrow at 222 Eastern Time. And remember, coming up June the 5th there at 555 Sunday night, 555 Central Time for Grace, Grace, Grace. I'm going to be doing a livestream about abortion and about a strategy to be prepared. It'll be on my YouTube channel and I'm honored that Dwain Miller and Timothy Carscadden will be joining me that night. And we're going to just speak from heaven and speak from our hearts and release spiritual understanding so that we can become very proactive for what's ahead. God bless all the hosts, and we're thankful for all of the participants that are so faithful to join with us and add their power of agreement, make their decrees and make their declaration. God bless you.
