

Triumphant Prayer Call for Righteousness

Tuesday Night Prayer Call

Topic: Warring Against Fear & Decrees Over Joe Manchin

Date: 12/21/2022

Clay Nash: [00:00:02] Amen. All right, it's 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time, we're on our Tuesday night call and we are going to press in tonight. A couple of things that came in my spirit this afternoon in prayer is I want us to pray against this fear through this intimidation that's being released out of our government; out of the White House. Another thing is, I want us to focus tonight on continuing to lift up Joe Manchin. He's made a very, very significant stand. His stand is based on that he has experienced inflation before. It is a tremendous thing. I've lived through two of them that I remember well; the early seventies and in the time of Jimmy Carter, the late 70s, early 80s, and they were very, very challenging at that time. And so we're going to begin with that as our focus and just follow the spirit of the Lord tonight. And Regina, I'm going to ask you to open us in prayer and lead us off.

Regina Shank: [00:01:12] Okay, thank you, Clay, so good to be on with everyone tonight. My heart has been to get rid of fear in our atmosphere, and it has been touching so many lives and so many families coming across our television sets, coming across all the media. And I am actually declaring war against the spirit of fear in the atmosphere. So thank you for allowing me to start off tonight. Lord, we thank you so much that you have not given us a spirit of fear, but you have given us power and love and a sound mind. And Lord, we will listen to your word that will negate the words from the media that are trying to get us to cower and to submit to their intimidation and their fear, and we decree tonight that we will not bow to their image. We will not bend our knee to the spirit of fear or intimidation, but we will stand up right. They are fallen and we are standing upright because Lord, you are with us and greater is he in us, than he that is in the world. And so, Lord tonight, we thank you for all these prayers that are coming forth for our nation and for actually the atmosphere that we live in. Lord, I thank you that we live by the spirit. We do not live by the atmosphere of the world. The spirit of the world cannot touch us as we soak ourselves in you, in your presence and in your word. And Father, I do pray for Joe Manchin. I pray you would protect him, that you would keep him on your side in this situation, God, and Father, we also pray tonight for all of our prayers, Lord, to rise as incense before your throne. Lord, that you would come and that you would bring deliverance to our nation and that you, by your spirit, would blow your wind. I just see you blowing your wind across this nation to rid it of fear. So Lord, thank you God, that your love, your perfect love casts fear out of doors and keeps it away from us. And we decree tonight, Father, we will not let it in our doors, our eyes, our ears, our hearts. We will not allow it in because God, we are safe in you and the safest place to be in the world is in your will. And we thank you Father, we are walking by your spirit and we are safe in you and you are our refuge. And so, tonight we thank you that fear is leaving and we will not be intimidated by it, in Jesus name, Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:04:07] Amen. Thank you for that, Regina, appreciate it. I just declare now over Joe Manchin that he's going to be strong and courageous. I declare that he's chosen, even as Joshua, to go a way that he's never been before. I declare that the strength, courage and faithful commitment of Joe Manchin is going to pull out of the shadows, others that are in--that are wanting to cross over and stand for their convictions on the inside and for truth that they know will prevail. So Father, let letters of encouragement be written to Joe Manchin. But also let his strength and his stand cause others to come out of the shadows, come out of their own fear that is gripping them of what the Democratic Party will do against them. Father, we just declare that Joe Manchin is the first domino. We declare that him stepping out as he has is what Dan Blacksher has been bringing forth; It's the full-court press. We also declare Father, according to your word, on January the 20th, that his stand is going to cause the rope that they've been given to hang themselves with, Father. It's going to be further moreso moving into that now. Now, Father, we just declare that there is a holy revolt rising up internally through righteous conviction over our senators, over our House of Representatives, we just declare over governor's, Father, just let us keep pushing this back all the way up to the Supreme Court, and we declare over every one of those life-loving conservative justices, that they will vote for life, not only in the Roe vs. Wade, not only in that, but in other decisions across this nation. And we declare inflation will not take this nation down. We declare there is a turning and we declare that turning is going to bring the tipping point for righteousness to flow in a mighty way. Father, we declare that now, and we thank you for it in Yeshua's name. Betty, what's in your heart?

Betty Love: [00:06:39] Clay, you went exactly what the Lord was resonating within me; that different spirit that Joshua and Caleb had and the very words that the Lord spoke to Joshua: Be not afraid and be not discouraged. And you'll lead the people in to inherit the land and just some other scriptures the Lord has given. And I'm just going to begin to pray and decree into this.

Father, I thank you. I agree with the words that have been released here tonight and as we gather together, as your Ekklesia, coming into agreement with your redemptive plan for the United States of America, recognizing your rule and reign is going to stand. Father, recently, I received word that over the last six months that there will be many cliffhangers that Lord, that we were in a season as your people, individually, and corporately, that we needed to dig down to the bedrock and anchor ourselves there. And Father, I thank you for a flint-Faith people, Lord, even in Joe Manchin and others that have taken a stand for righteousness and truth in the land. Lord, that you are actually using in this hour. And for your righteous remnant, your Ekklesia, that is standing, You are our bedrock. You are our sure foundation. Lord, your word says in Proverbs 29: 25, that fear and intimidation is a trap that holds you back. But when you place your confidence in the Lord, you will be seated in the high place. And so, Father, tonight we want to acknowledge as your people, Lord, our confidence is in you and your word and what you have decreed over our nation, what is written in the books of the United States of America. And Father, you are a God who watches over your word to perform it. And Father, we thank you that your covenant, you will not violate your covenant or alter what your lips have uttered. Father, you have revealed that we are in a season where Rhema's are manifesting. Father, even in this season of Christmas, Lord, as I read the Christmas story, and I read that when the shepherds had received that message from the angels and the angelic host, their response was, "Let's go, let's go. Let's hurry and see this word, this Rhema." Father, I thank you, up front, before it ever manifests, Father, we are praising you for what you are doing in this nation, and Lord, we will not be trapped. We decree and declare that Joe Manchin and others will not be trapped by fear or intimidation but we say they are loosed and Lord God, we thank you for the anchor that holds. Lord, you said in Matthew 10:26: Don't be afraid or intimidated by others, for God will bring everything out into the open. And every secret will be told. So, Father, we are praising you before we ever see the fullness of the manifestation of your words and your promises that you have spoken over this nation. For Lord, we expect our confidence is in you. Our confidence is that you have caused us, your functioning Ekklesia, to be seated in that high place far above all, real authority, power and dominion to release your kingdom and your righteousness and your truth into America. And Father, we say to you that never have the righteous been forsaken or their seed begging bread. We thank you, Lord God, for the turning of the tide. And we thank you, Lord, that truth and light will prevail across this nation. And Lord, we are not afraid for our confidence is in you. And Lord, because you were in the midst of your people throughout this nation, Father, we believe that we will not be moved by what we see or hear. But Lord, you will help us at break of day. We decree and declare in Joe Manchins's life and in others that are standing for truth and righteousness: DAYBREAK, daybreak, daybreak. And Father, we thank you not only for help in the Earth, but Lord, we thank you for a mobilization of angel armies that are running on your word and your will. Let every trap of fear and intimidation that is being propagated by the media and others, let it be strong and let it boomerang back on them, Lord. Let it be exposed for what it is; lies and intimidation. And Lord, we thank you that truth and right prevails for your foundation is sure in us and we have put our hope and our trust in you and your kingdom plan and purpose for this nation. So Father, we thank you for those that are standing for your spirit of power, love and a sound mind. And tonight, those throughout this nation, Lord, that desire to see this nation come into the fullness of her birthright and destiny. Lord, we're pulling our bootstraps up tonight and we thank you that our feet are shod with the shoes of the preparation of the gospel of peace. And Father, as our words are released in our decree, Lord, we are moving through this land. And Lord, we believe that even as Joshua, that same spirit, that military word that you gave Joshua, that wheresoever he set the soles of his feet, Lord, you are with them. And the land was his. So Father, We thank you tonight that you are the God of peace who crushes Satan under our feet. And Lord God, we thank you for your peace that passes all understanding, guarding the hearts of your people and even the American public that they will know the truth and the truth will set them free. And Lord, our confidence is in you and we give you praise that you are working, you have not removed your hand from this nation, nor changed your mind, nor changed your plan. And so, we say "yes and Amen" in Jesus name.

Clay Nash: [00:13:31] Amen. Thank you, Betty, for those strong declarations there. We come in agreement with every one of them. Sharon, what's in your heart tonight?

Sharon Buss: [00:13:41] Hi, Clay, it's good to be back together again tonight, and we're just standing together with what has already been said, and I want to bring to bear over this situation, Isaiah, Chapter 41 and beginning with verse eight, it says, "But you Israel, my servant Jacob, whom I've chosen, the offspring of Abraham, my friend." So we know that this is directly pointing to Israel, but it's also pointing to us because we are sons and daughters of Abraham by faith. So we're grafted in. So we take this promise for the Ekklesia and for this nation that was designed and destined as a Christian nation. So it says "to you"-- I'm just going to add America-- "you whom I, the Lord, have taken from the ends of the Earth"--and that is absolutely the truth about this nation--"and have called you from the corners of it and said to you, You are my servant. I have chosen you and not cast you off, even though you are exiled." And we're kind of

in that in our society right now. We are-- it's like we've been exiled from God, but not the Ekklesia. "Fear not. There is nothing to fear." and we declare this over Joe Manchin and everyone else who is stepping up to a line with backbone. We call for them to align with backbone. We speak this over them that they will not fear. Fear not, there is nothing to fear. For I am with you. Do not look around in terror and be dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen and harden you to difficulties. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you and retain you with my victorious right hand of rightness and justice. Behold, all those who are enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded. We declare that over this whole leftist attitude and this whole leftist agenda and group of people that are-- that have been hoodwinked and carried away with dissimulation so that they are speaking the wrong things and barking up the wrong tree. Behold, all who are arrayed, enraged and inflamed against you shall be put to shame and confounded. They who strive against you shall be as nothing and shall perish. You shall seek those who contend with you, but you shall not find them. They who war against you shall be as nothing. Nothing at all. For I, the Lord, your God hold your right hand. I am the Lord who says to you, "Fear not, I will help you." And it goes on to talk about the worm, Jacob. And, you know, sometimes God has us hidden in a place as though we were worms. We're hidden from view, but God's-- and in the process we've been, we've been making the lands more fertile. "Fear not, you worm Jacob. You men of Israel. I will help you, saith the Lord. Your redeemer is the holy one of Israel. Behold, I will make you to be new. A new, sharp threshing instrument which has teeth. You shall thresh the mountains", and we'll just declare that over all of the mountains of society, "and beat them small and shall make the hills like chaff." We just declare that all of those things that have arisen in dark with dark powers, with dark agendas, that all of that dark part of the mountain is going to be beaten as small chaff and beaten small just down to nothing. "You shall winnow them. You throw them up in the air and the wind shall carry them away. And the tempest or whirlwind shall scatter them. And you shall rejoice in the Lord. You shall glory in the holy one of Israel." We declare that over Joe Manchin and over all who will align themselves with him to do right, to do justice, to do righteousness, to do the things that are the right thing to do. We declare that you will be even used by God to break down all of this, this fake stuff, all of this fake stuff, in the name of Jesus Christ. All of that is this pseudo government, this whole pseudo thing that's been set up. We declare it's coming down. It's to be beaten small and it will not be found because Jesus Christ is Lord over the United States of America, and he's in the process of saving this nation, in Jesus name. Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:18:38] Amen. Thank you for that, Sharon. We-- You know, in a dream sometime ago, I think Gina Gholston had it. It spoke in the dream, "America shall be saved." But I believe we're moving into a place, I know we're at a place that we must call those things that are not as though they are. So we are declaring that America is being saved, is being saved through the declarations and decrees of the Ekklesia, is being saved through the spiritual warfare that's taking place of the praying church across this nation. And so, we just declare now: America is being saved. We declare now: awakening is increasing. Awakening is rising across our nation. We declare: the tsunami of God's glory is coming across this nation and people are recognizing it, engaging it and stepping into it in a very significant stance. We declare that now in Yeshua's name. Amen. Timothy, what's in your heart?

Timothy Carscadden: [00:19:47] Thank you, Clay, and to all the intercessors on tonight, we honor you for joining with us as we prayed tonight. Just a logistical thing before I pray for Joe Manchin and I just encourage everybody to do this. You can Google how to contact Joe Manchin, email and just email his office and just write him a note and say, As an American, you thank him for standing up, especially on this last issue on the Build Back Better program where he was responsible physically, financially for the nation. And I'll say this because when I lobby senates offices, there are staff members that sit there and count those letters, count the positives and the negatives and they go in, I've been there when they tell the senator, Hey, Senator, we have, you know, 5000 emails, you know, 4000 of them are positive, ten thousand are negative against you. And so those weigh on the senator. And they mean a lot. So I encourage everybody to do that logistic thing. Faith with works, let's put our feet to the fire. And I know Clay had said earlier about writing letters. And I think that's very important for us to do that and also pray for the people of West Virginia because they did the small poll and West Virginians are supporting Joe. And that is what makes him keep fighting because if he didn't have his constituents standing with him, he would then begin to wonder what to do. So we want to make sure that we pray for West Virginians as well, that they stand because they stand to lose the most with these programs, because they're a coal industry and a lot of gas industry in West Virginia, and they will be hurt majorly by some of these socialist programs they are trying to bring forth. Anyway, I just put that there logistically and as we pray for them, remember, Joe Manchin has been in senate for a long time. He used to work with Senator Joe Biden, and he knows Joe Biden very well. And if you heard his speech this week, he said, "I realize I'm coming up against the staff. This is not Joe Biden." And I say that for this reason, I had a dream earlier this year, I was in the White House talking to Joe Biden, President Biden, and he came up to me in this dream and he asked me to pray for him. And this is what he said to me. He said, "Please pray for me." He said, "my staff takes advantage of me in my moments of dementia." And I saw this vision when he had these moments when he'd go into dementia, where they would take papers and put them in front of him and he'd sign them. And he didn't notice. And as he asked me to do this, I saw like this sphere around him, like five feet around him or so. And when I would pray for him, the staff would be pushed back from him. That they would not be able to take advantage of him when he is not in his right mind. And I don't mean that in a derogatory way. I used to work with dementia patients, and he has every sign and symptom of having early stages of dementia. So we know that that's nothing to laugh at or mock. It's a sad, sad state when somebody's mind goes that way. But we must pray that the staff does not take advantage of that. And Joe Manchin is fully aware that this is his staff pushing this agenda and not Joe Biden as a man. So we want to pray for that. That he'd have wisdom, that he'd have this discernment because he is like an Elijah right now, standing up to a Jezebel spirit. He has good discernment and we want to stand with him. So Father, we lift up Joe Manchin right now. We lift up West Virginians as well. We thank you for that state. We honor that state, the Mountaineer state. We thank you God, that those people are standing with their senator, that they are supporting him and encouraging him. Lord, that's who he was elected for. And I pray for those that voice just resonate through him that he would be a voice of the people. That he'd be a voice for the Constitution. That he'd be a voice for what is true in this land. And I pray God for that sphere to be around our president, that this staff would not take advantage of when he's in these lax moments where his mind is not right and that Father, they would not use those moments to push a Marxist socialist agenda. Lord, I pray that Lord that President Biden would be able to rise up and do what's right, Father, that he'd have a voice of his own. We decree that, but we pray over Joe Manchin, and we just say, Father, let him continue to be strong like Elijah was with the prophets of Baal. That Lord that he would stand up and say, "No, I will not be intimidated by you. You do what you're going to do, and the Lord will lap up your altar there." And we decree that strength on the gift of discernment around Mr. Manchin, Father, Senator Manchin, and all those that work with him and may he navigate through this season and be that that reasoning voice in America in this hour in the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:25:06] Amen. thank you, Timothy, for that. We need a breakthrough to come. Wouldn't a spiritual turnaround of Joe Biden speak strongly? And I know some of you just grinned just then. I mean, you just-- it's hard for us to believe that. But you know, we're in a time that God is seeking to show Himself strong. So, Father, we bless those that are praying and lifting up all this situation and let their prayers be heard. All right. We've got our great friend from down in Texas, brother Jim Hodges, on with us tonight and brother, what's in your heart?

Jim Hodges: [00:25:52] Thank you, Clay and team. I'm just sitting here amazed because as you're praying, it's like rays of light are going out, like the wind is blowing. It's like the tipping point is being approached. And I say all those touches to say that it was a long time ago that the Ecclesia had the foresight insight to pray for Senator Joe Manchin. And I want to kind of pick up on that and continue that. The famous scripture that we all know and we can quote half asleep, of course, is about Esther and Mordechai. They were the strategic few who made the difference in a time such as this. And Joe Manchin and others that he needs to join him, By the way. I appreciate what Sharon said about that to align people with him because the, if you will, the remnant that's standing for truth or the remnant that's come to the King for such a time as this has got to grow so as to offset members of the Republican Party who are still supporting the Build Back Better. Which I renamed Build Back Worse. I say that respectfully, because this agenda doesn't make things better. And When we think about this, when you think about Lindsey Graham, Mitch McConnell, Susan Collins, Lisa Murkowski, come on and Mitt Romney, they can still, they can still switch over and support Biden. And it's a shame that they equivocate, that compromised, people that we had respect for a number of reasons because we saw them on the media. I mean, I traveled in Ohio with some friends to pray when Mitt Romney was running against Obama. And then, of course, they got-- I didn't mention, Liz Cheney. So just go down the line. So we need to pray as Sharon, I want to underscore what Sharon said there concerning more who have understanding like Senator Manchin among the Democrats. Come on. And you know, the numbers add up if he makes his stand. Biden's agenda does not advance, however, these compromising equivocating rhinos, if they don't take their stand, we could still go the wrong way. I'm not pessimistic. I'm just trying to identify the strategy to move forward and see our nation turning because it is turning in many, many ways. But it's got to turn on every front. On this front, on the whole media front, on the thing now with this Maxwells girlfriend's trial going on there. They're probably going to keep a lid on names, so we're not going to get justice overnight. And if you understand that-- and I really want to thank Timothy for also giving us encouragement because I don't know how to get a hold of Manchin right now. I met him once. No time for that story. When he was governor. Was on the West Virginia. But I'm telling you, there is a bridge between Texas and West Virginia. It's called Fossil Fuels. Okay? And of course, Louisiana right on our east side and Oklahoma on our north side. So we got a coalition of people that are, shall we say, not green energy people. But I just want to say tonight,

I'm very encouraged that we're getting down now to revelation, who to pray for, who will be the Mordechai's, who will be the Esther's to step up right now and be the righteous remnant that does the right thing. That's used of God to turn our nation back, not only to its roots, but on the path toward its divine destiny. So Father, in the mighty name of Jesus, we declare and we thank you before we declare that you're pulling out of revelation, understanding, insight, foresight to your Ekklesia, Lord. We sit in counsel with you. Father, we know you sat in counsel before the worlds began. You, and the Son and the Spirit. And you sat in counsel, for Creation's Plan, which included Redemption's plan or in that meeting, you chose your Son to be the lamb who was slain in your mind before the wolves began. We say your eternal purpose from before the beginning is prevailing, will prevail and America will have her part to play in our strategic global kingdom harvest. And we bless you for it. We thank you for giving us names in our dreams or our times with you. So we'll know specifically who to call alongside Joe Manchin, who to move in the right direction despite political affiliations and distinctions. We thank you, Lord Jesus, and it's season. It's a season. We still say that the Song of the Angels will not be mocked by us. We will receive their song: Peace on Earth. Good Will toward men. thank you for using men and women in this hour to change and turn every nation toward the Lordship of your exalted Son, Father. And we declare it in Jesus name. Amen.

Clay Nash: [00:31:57] Amen. Thank you, brother Jim, and we are going to be getting it put on our website, on my website, claynash.org, where you can email Senator Manchin. We need to do that. We need to encourage him. We need to fuel that conviction. I believe some of it is coming out of his wife. I had a dream several months ago when brother Jim Hodges first began to point us toward praying for him more. And I saw him lying on a bed. It was not sickly, but I saw his wife praying over him. He was just resting and she was praying, and I knew that she carried some influence. And so, I just declare now, Father, let the influence of the one person in of life that he is one with, let that influence increase the conviction that in his heart, in his spirit. Father, we bless him for his stand and we declare the words that will be used to try to murder his character and try to destroy him, we just declare that we will not see that done, that he will stand strong and that there will be a protective hedge of the blood of Christ in the word of God around Joe Manchin. And we declare that that Protective hedge will be the hedge of truth as he stands one with truth, you will not only protect him, but you will promote him. Father, we just declare these things over him tonight. we stand with his conviction tonight and ask that that conviction will be increased in Yeshua's name.

Clay Nash [00:33:55] I want to end tonight's call with just a couple of things. Remember coming up, beginning on the 27th, next Monday, we will not be having any prayer calls that week. Take time off. seek a refreshing. We will come back on January the 3rd at 2:22 and then we'll be there on January the 4th, which will be 44 Tuesday nights before election time. And we're going to come back with a new fervor. We're going to come back with a passion that's greater. We're going to trim out as much as we can to where we are just making declarations and decrees out of the spirit. And we need every one of you participants to be a part of it. This next year is key and we're going to-- How we began on the first week of January will determine how we finish at the end of next year. So we're going to come out strong. But I've been saying this, what I'm about to tell you for years and years and years, possibly, you know, over 30 years now. There's two groups of people in our nation; there are those who live by preference and those that live by conviction. We're in a time right now that those that live by preference are screaming louder, operating more evil than we have ever had in this nation. It comes out of The Horn of Selfishness, which is in the Book of Ezekiel. Where it speaks about selfish people, but listen to this: when you go back to Cain and Abel, Cain brought his offering because it was convenient. He brought it out of preference. Abel brought his out of conviction and we are in a time right now where those who are living by preference. Well, this, you know, those that are voting for this bill that will come out of the white out; their preference. You know, how much money is it going to put in my pocket? It's going to give me free child care for seven percent. You know, it's not free. There's nothing free out there. And we need to realize that those that are living by preference in this hour are rising up and they they're carrying a bagabon spirit, the curse of Cain, and they are rising up with their mouth, atleast, , and they are seeking to murder those who were living by conviction. And so, we've got to settle in our heart. We cannot allow our emotions to lead us. One of the things that I do, and when we watch, Susan and I watch a Western, if you ever see the cowboy, you ever see the Sheriff, even the bad guy get into an emotional state to where his emotions are leading him, I always tell Susan, I say, "his downfall is coming." And we got to move out of where our emotions are controlling us Jesus gave us great instruction and its instruction for now. He said, "Be angry but sin not." In other words, do not allow our emotions to lead us And guide us. We've got to remain responding to Holy Spirit. But I want to tell you, those that live by preference are in the hour of seeking to destroy those of us that live by conviction. You know, so many times the strongest people I know in my life, like a couple that visited our church one time in Southaven and I met with them after their first visit and I asked them, you know, some questions: how'd they come to hear about the church? Well, we sure hope you come back visit. And they looked me in the eye and they said, "Oh, we'll be back. We knew this was our church before we got here. God said, So." Conviction is like, is it really faith, it's the way God speaks. And when it does, faith comes with it. So tonight, I pray over you on this call. I pray over every host. I pray over every participant on this call tonight, and I just declare over you that the conviction of Holy Spirit is going to be the plumb line, the plumb bob that's dropped in your life. I pray that your conscious convictions, your core values are going to move you with passion to let your yay be yay and your nay be nay. I declare over you that the windows of heaven are open and that God is pouring out His blessings upon those who are being led by conviction and who are standing steadfast by conviction, and I thank you, Father, that there's an increase of conviction coming up on everyone in this nation. Some will sear their conscience with a hot iron. Others will yield to it. Others will run from it. But Father, we declare there is an awakening, a refreshing. There's a release of fresh hope and we declare it's going to continue to cause this nation to turn. Now, Father, we thank you for all that's on this call. They're on here because they're convicted to do so. So, Father, we just release that conviction over them, in Yeshua's name. Amen. and Amen. Will be back on tomorrow at 2:22 and we're going to finish this week up strong. . we're going to take a week to just seek the Lord after Christmas, and then we're going to come back with a vengeance. So we bless you. We thank you for your faithfulness. We thank you hosts for being faithful to this call. And we know that our declarations and decrees are making a difference and we're going to continue to see that done. So bless all of you.
