

With A Heart of Reformation Declaration
From Triumphant Prayer Call for Righteousness, 3/30/21

As the Ekklesia with hearts of reformation, we hereby pledge an unwavering allegiance to the kingdom of God. As we pledge, as we take on the challenge of paying the price and cost of protecting biblical principles America was founded on.

With a heart of purity and a life led by Holy fear for our nation's Creator, we declare that we will live the life of the reformer. Although we live under the flag of the red, white and blue, we're guided by the banner of the blood of Jesus.

With a heart of reformation, we will not allow the Kingdom of Darkness to steal the life of the unborn. With a heart of reformation, we will not allow the evil seed of Islamic influences to rule in the United States.

With a heart of reformation, we will not allow the sacred covenant of marriage between a man and a woman to continue to be constitutionally redefined.

With a heart of reformation, we choose to operate with a heart of violent worship, unselfishly devoted to ushering in the glory of God that crushes the enemy's camp.

With a heart of reformation, we will not live within what the four walls of what religion calls the church and be ruled by the fear and intimidation of the socialists, the liberals, the Democrats, those that have hidden agendas and Antichrist spirits.

With a heart of reformation, we will challenge the culture and effectively aid in the transformation of the church and our nation into the completeness of God's original intent.

With a heart of reformation, we will overcome ungodly principles and decrees declared from the mouths of evil representatives who have staked their unrightful place in the political arena.

May we have ears always inclined to the voice of the captain of the Hosts. It is our solemn vow to live the life of a reformer. Let our yes be yes. Let our no be no. As we seek first the kingdom of God, we will walk in authority to execute righteous judgment in our land. As our footsteps of reformation are burned into the very ground may it cause a Holy consumption of all unrighteousness and may the roar, our roar, of reformation always be to advance the kingdom of God.

We declare that today, March 31st, 2021, and we will begin to declare it and live it out and see this inequality bill not pass. We will see this...the Supreme Court not pack, and we will see the filibuster, not change to where they can take over and bring forth the evil influence.

We declare these things to be so and we stay on the wall, we stay in prayer, we stay fresh with declarations, listening always to what heaven is decreeing and legislating it's will into the earth in this nation and across the world. We declare these things now in Yeshua's name. Amen. Amen.
